

A Pending and Necessary Demise

King Abdullah II of Jordan recently visited the White House to receive instructions on his role in the ongoing genocide in Gaza. Biden was keen on involving the Jordanian regime in its plans to broker a ceasefire between the Zionist entity and Hamas. He is committed to reaching an agreement. "The key elements of the deal are on the table," Biden said alongside the king, though "there are gaps that remain." He said the U.S. would do "everything possible" to make an agreement happen including a pause in fighting for at least six weeks and the release of the remaining hostages held by Hamas. He also emphasized the importance of the Palestinian Authority in assuming responsibilities in Gaza in the event that Hamas is no longer in power, stating, "they must prepare to build a state that accepts peace, does not harbor terrorist groups like Hamas and Islamic Jihad."

This followed a round of meetings with American politicians including Secretary of State Blinken, Defense Secretary Austin, and the National Security Advisor, who have been frequent visitors to the Middle East, emphasizing their strong military support for the Zionist entity. These visits also exerted political pressure on right-wing leaders in Netanyahu's government to align with American goals for a two-state solution.

This blatant disregard by the U.S. for the Ummah is one that is no longer concealed. It has left the U.S. exposed before the world. The unparalleled arrogance and aggression displayed in endorsing terrorism and genocide while claiming to facilitate peace negotiations is a hypocrisy that the world witnesses and sees through. These stances put an overwhelming amount of pressure on the agents that cling to the West's cloak.

It's no longer a question that the Jordanian regime is engaged in a struggle for its survival, which is evident in its alliances with the U.S. and U.K. and their frequent meetings. This underscores their fear and the instability of their reigns. The Jordanian regime mistakenly believes that its collaboration with the Zionist entity and the West can forestall its imminent downfall.

The entire Ummah condemns the reprehensible positions taken by the United States and the inaction of the Jordanian regime. They seek an escape from their leaders and the flawed global order. True transformation can only be achieved through the downfall of the West's agents and political entities and a profound embrace of the Islamic ideology, via the reestablishment of the Khilafah (Caliphate) that will put the liberation of Palestine as a priority and dismantle the network of agents and systems that occupy the Muslim world.

﴿مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ اتَّخَذُوا مِنْ دُونِ اللَّهِ أَوْلِيَاءَ كَمَثَلِ الْعَنْكَبُوتِ اتَّخَذَتْ بَيْتًا وَإِنَّ أَوْهَنَ الْبُيُوتِ لَبَيْتُ الْعَنْكَبُوتِ لَوْ كَانُوا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾

"The parable of those who take protectors other than Allah is that of a spider spinning a shelter. And the flimsiest of all shelters is certainly that of a spider, if only they knew." [Al-'Ankabut: 41]
