Trump Wrestles to Regain Control over North Korea Issue

According to Sky News:

Donald Trump has said the June talks with North Korea could be back on.

It comes after the president cancelled a meeting with Kim Jong Un that were scheduled for 12 June.

Mr Trump had blamed Pyongyang's "tremendous anger and open hostility" as he pulled out of the meeting in Singapore, saying the world had "lost a great opportunity for lasting peace".

But on Friday, Mr Trump was asked whether the talks could still go ahead and said that negotiations with North Korea were already under way.

He said: "We're going to see what happens. We're talking to them now. It could even be the 12th. They very much want to do it, we'd like to do it."

The rapid changes in the American position, shamelessly threatening nuclear devastation last year, welcoming summit negotiations this year, then cancelling but then signalling reengaging a day later, all points to the struggle of the American administration to establish their control over the issue.

America has long been following a devious plan in Korea, where it deliberately inflates the Korean issue in order to justify its large military presence on Korean peninsula, in close proximity to China, which is America's real target and concern. In this, the Americans are closely following the approach that was previously used by the British when they were the world's superpower.

The Americans were put off balance at the beginning of this year by South Korean President Moon Jae-In's aggressive normalisation efforts with North Korea. But US President Donald Trump quickly worked to retake the initiative over the issue by agreeing to a summit meeting with Kim Jong-Un. By cancelling and reengaging, Trump is further trying to show who is boss.

A further victory for Trump, personally, was that he was able to win over the American establishment to his approach, enabling him to replace his National Security Adviser and his Secretary of State with fellow hardliners John Bolton and Mike Pompeo.

America, and the West as a whole, as long as they follow the secular materialist Capitalist ideology, are a disaster for the entire world. They seek to bring the rest of the world into submission to themselves alone through spreading chaos and destruction everywhere. This contrasts with the general peace and justice that prevailed in the world during the millennium that Islam was the world's superpower, which the West itself benefitted from to arrive at their present level of civilisation.

Pompeo begins Threatening Pakistan

Trump's new team of Bolton and Pompeo has already begun focussing on key matters other than Korea, including Iran and Pakistan. According to al-Jazeera:

Diplomats from the United States are being "treated badly" in Pakistan, Secretary of State Mike Pompeo has told a US congressional hearing, adding that the South Asian country would continue to receive diminishing US aid.

The remarks from Pompeo, who was testifying before the US house foreign affairs committee on Thursday, come as relations between the two erstwhile allies have continued to deteriorate.

"My officers, our state department officers, are being treated badly as well, folks working in the embassies and councils [and] in other places are not being treated well by the Pakistani government either," Pompeo said, during a debate on the US State Department's budget for the 2019 fiscal year.

Earlier this month, the United States issued new restrictions for Pakistani diplomats posted in the country, requiring them to remain within a 25-mile (40.2km) radius of the city to which they are posted.

The State Department said it was taking the measures on a reciprocal basis, as US diplomats posted in Pakistan face severe restrictions on their ability to travel within the country.

Pakistan says the restrictions are due to security concerns.

America is creating friction with Pakistan in order to use this to pressurise the Pakistani leadership into further subservience over Afghanistan. The tenuous American occupation in Afghanistan was further tested recently with Taliban gains in Farah, in western Afghanistan, far from the Taliban's south-eastern stronghold. It was Pakistan that enabled America to enter Afghanistan, and it was Pakistan that enabled America to continue its occupation in Afghanistan. Even now, under American pressure, Pakistan has begun detailed discussions on cooperation with the Kabul puppet regime. But all this is not enough and America wants even more.

Muslims will never be free of American pressure until they stop cooperating with foreign disbelievers and learn to depend upon themselves alone. But that requires that we install sincere, ideological, indigenous leadership that is true to the Ummah and its Deen, and throw out the corrupt Westernised elite that serves only its own personal interests and those of its Western masters.

The Judicial System of the Illegal Jewish entity is even worse than its Ruling System

According to al-Jazeera:

"Israel's" Supreme Court has unanimously rejected two petitions brought by human rights groups demanding "Israel's" army to stop using snipers and live ammunition against unarmed Palestinian protests in the Gaza Strip.

The panel of three justices on Thursday sided with the "Israeli" military, which argued that the protesters constituted a real danger to Israeli soldiers and citizens.

"Israel" maintains its forces use of live fire is in line with both domestic and international law, arguing the demonstrations are part of the country's conflict with Hamas, which governs the Gaza Strip.

The court's ruling gave "Israel" "a green light to its continued use of snipers and live fire against Palestinian protesters", Adalah - The Legal Center for Arab Minority Rights in "Israel" and Al Mezan Center for Human Rights, which filed one of the petitions, said in a statement on Friday.

"The "Israeli" Supreme Court completely ignored the broad factual basis presented to it by the petitioners, which includes multiple testimonies of wounded and reports of international organisations involved in documenting the killing and wounding of unarmed protesters in Gaza".

The human rights groups said the court "refused to watch video clips documenting Israeli shootings of demonstrators and, rather than actually examining the case, fully accepted the claims presented to it by the state.

"The extreme nature of the ruling is also highlighted by the striking absence of any mention of the casualty figures that had been presented to the court".

The judicial systems in modern states are designed to fully support and enforce the policies of the state, so it is natural that the judicial system of the illegal Jewish entity should fully support the basis of the illegal entity of which it is a part.

The justification for the illegal occupying Jewish entity comes from the concept of the Westphalian nation state, a legal fiction according to which the state belongs to a geographically-defined nation, which somehow becomes a collective entity by virtue of their common location but are somehow completely separate from people like them just across the border in a different geographically-defined nation. The Zionist movement made use of the Westphalian concept by arranging the mass migration of Jewish people to the land of Palestine, thereby artificially constructing a geographical entity that could claim to be a nation-state under the Westphalian system.

Westphalia in all its forms has only produced enmity between peoples thereby creating excessive instability in the world order. In its application to the illegal Jewish entity, Westphalia has justified the oppression and eviction of an entire people that lived in the Blessed Land (Palestine) for centuries under peaceful Islamic rule. Justice will only return to the Blessed Land (Palestine) when the illegal Jewish entity is destroyed at the hands of the noble mujahideen under the flag of the re-established righteous Islamic Khilafah (Caliphate) State on the method of the Prophet (saw).
