

The System that Our Forefathers Overhanded Can Only Be Protected by Implementation

News:

President Recep Tayyip Erdogan said, "I believe that the historical, cultural and tourist attraction of our Istanbul will increase even more with the revival of the Yildiz Palace." Erdogan, who expressed that the most important link of the moves to open the National Palaces to the nation is to bring the Yildiz Palace to the public, said also that they will continue to claim the relics of the deceased. Erdogan noted that they will protect the heritage of the ancestors, put their feet firmly on the foundations of civilization for thousands of years, and make the twenty-first century the "Century of Turkey" by Allah's permission as they move step by step towards the goals of the "Turkish Century". Comment:

Managers who take it as a custom to caress the feelings of the public with formal, fancy words that have no equivalent in actual life, where everything supposedly remains, are pushing the facts away from the public eye with fake agendas. Wouldn't it be treason to the trust of ecdad to say that their relics are taken care of by restoring the places where the ancestors gave order to the world, destroying the order of them, betraying Islam and Muslims, and ruling with the secular capitalist order, which is their non-Islamic order? The reconstruction and restoration of places where the rule of Islam is not applied makes these places only historical, tourist places. Your discourse that the Twenty-first century will be the Century of Turkey does not correspond to political realities in any way. The proof that such ambitious rhetoric is empty is that are reckless to the situations happening in Gaza. Would you have claimed the legacy of your ancestors when the cries of hundreds of thousands of children, women and the elderly who suffered genocide have been hurting us for 9 months, you only have messages of condemnation and a few food parcels that you can send as far as the Jewish infidel allows?

If, taking care of the places, is taking care of the trust of ancestors, you must know that Gaza has been destroyed, there are no structures has been left in Gaza. When you think that tens of thousands of Muslims who were massacred may not have been the reason to claim this heritage, maybe those structures will be! Our forefathers; they were fulfilling the obligation of responsibility by not being insensitive to the cries and needs of Muslims on one side of the world while bringing trust, peace, justice and mercy to the world with the Islamic Order they practiced.

They were not literalists in the so-called depository verb like you. Let's remind you that despite the tremendous power in your hands, a handful of barbaric Jewish beings who sin against you, are confined to their borders, take positions according to US politics, prioritize only interests, a state, a ruler, an order leaves only a trace of disgrace, cowardice, incompetence, servility in the twenty-first century.

If you really want the twenty-first century to be the century of Islam and Muslims, not of Turkey, you will abandon the outdated, unscrupulous, merciless secular capitalist order that you are applying and rule with the Islamic Order. By mobilizing the armies and power at your disposal over the raging Jewish presence, you will have started this process. This will be a real step that will confirm your word and your deed. Otherwise, you will continue to deceive the public by continuing the restoration mastery and making literature of the forefathers relic! May Allah preserve the Ummah from this understanding of yours.
