

After 300 Days of Genocide: Europe Still Behind the Zionist Mass Murderers

News:

In these days the Zionists are attending the Paris Olympics as if no genocidal campaign is taking place in Palestine.

This is despite the fact that the EU's own foreign affairs chief, Josep Borrell, said on the 13th of March when he attended a meeting of the UN Security Council, according to the BBC:

"We are now facing a population fighting for their own survival", "Starvation is being used as a war arm and when we condemned this happening in Ukraine, we have to use the same words for what is happening in Gaza."

Furthermore, Borell tweeted the following on May 27 in response to the Zionist bombing of tent camps in Rafah:

"Horried by news coming out of #Rafah on Israeli strikes killing dozens of displaced persons, including small children. I condemn this in the strongest terms. There is no safe place in Gaza. These attacks must stop immediately."

Comment:

However, these findings of the Zionists' policy of starvation and mass murder of Gaza's men, elderly, women and children by the EU's foreign affairs chief have not led to a change of course in the EU in its relationship to the Zionist occupation.

And now, after more than 300 days of genocide, we see no sanctions from Europe directed at the child killers. In contrast, Europe continues its unwavering support for the Zionists and cracks down on pro-Palestinian protests.

There have not only been condemnations from the EU's foreign affairs chief. The UN Secretary General, Antonio Guterres, has repeatedly condemned the Zionists for their heinous crimes. The ICJ has further established that the Zionists must evacuate all settlements in the West Bank and pay compensation to the Palestinians. It is also expected that the International Criminal Court will soon issue an arrest warrant for war crimes against Benjamin Netanyahu and Yoav Gallant.

Despite these facts, Europe continues to export weapons to the Zionists, making Europe complicit in genocide. Genocide is thus not just a part of Europe's colonialist past, as we saw with e.g. the genocides in the Congo, Namibia, America and Australia. No, genocide is part of Europe's present.

However, the imperialist dominance of the West will soon be a thing of the past with Allah's permission. We are witnessing the last convulsions of the Zionist entity before its total collapse. And the Western-ruled world order, which for decades has marketed itself as nations that celebrate "human rights", has hit its moral collapse in their wretched support for a child-killing occupation and undermining of their own international institutions.

Before long, with Allah's permission, the world will witness an Islamic-dominated world order that puts justice first and puts an end to Western imperialism.
