

US Presidential Election Candidates Both Compete to Support Jewish Crimes in the Blessed Land of Palestine

(Translated)

News:

US Vice President Kamala Harris stated, ""And let me be clear, I will always stand up for Israel's right to defend itself and I will always ensure Israel has the ability to defend itself... Because the people of Israel must never again face the horror that a terrorist organization called Hamas caused on October 7." [Newsweek]. Under a headline which includes the word "Gaza" the word that Democrats do not dare to whisper in Chicago, Al-Jazeera reported on its website "Al Jazeera witnesses violent arrest of two hijab-wearing women as thousands in Chicago rally for Palestinian rights... Police officers, however, singled out two women wearing the hijab and after a brief exchange, they wrestled them to the ground and handcuffed them." [Al-Jazeera]

Comment:

Some fear that Donald Trump will win the US elections, because they think that Trump is more severe and extreme than his opponent in the Democratic Party, led by his competing candidate, US Vice President Kamala Harris. However, these statements by Harris confirm that both competitors are two sides of the same coin. There is only manipulation and differences in words, in the style of holding the stick in the middle, which is the policy of the Democratic Party. This is whilst Trump does not hide what he believes in, which is exactly what Harris and her party believe in.

However, what some do not know is that the reason for the agreement between the two parties, and their candidates, is that the ones who determine American interests, both at home and abroad, are the capitalists in America in its two major branches, the energy and industry sector as one branch, and the technology sector as the second branch. The successive administrations that rule in the White House are nothing but workers who are hired to serve the interests of these capitalists. The role of the American administrations that came recently has become secondary in achieving those interests, as multinational capitalist companies have come to serve their own interests, supported by the American military and political front-men, as they have become the deep state in American politics.

The reason for the difference in the rhetoric of both Harris and Trump is to win the swing votes for their respective parties. Harris wants to win the votes of minorities, including Muslims. She does not want to be more impudent than Trump in standing by her support for a Jewish state, in order to win the votes of Muslims. Trump wants to win the votes of Jews and extremist racists among Americans of European origin, especially those living in the southern states of America. Therefore, he resorts to using racist rhetoric to appease these racists amongst Jews and whites of European origin. This is whilst the majority of voters are from the working class and employees known as “corporate slaves” who work in those companies in both their branches, energy and industrial companies, and technology companies. The votes of these people are decided in advance according to their “masters” in the companies for which they work. They do not care about the American voter, the principles, morals, ideals, and false slogans that they raise, such as freedom, human rights, democracy, women’s rights, and so on.

The Muslim diaspora in America must not be an electoral card for these liars, who give them sweetness from the tip of their tongue, but are evasive like a fox. So, the Muslims must not participate in elections in which they have no stake. Likewise, the sheikhs, imams of masajid, and those in charge of Islamic institutions and associations must stop urging people to throw themselves into the destruction of engaging in the farce and conspiracy of the American elections. The elections will only produce a scoundrel who does not respect the believers or their covenant. Let them fear Allah instead, through the Islam they carry to the Muslims who have begun to put their American identity before their affiliation with the Islamic Ummah, thanks to the bad directions from them. These directions are out of an imagined fear of the security services, and in the hope of a comfortable life in the shadow of disbelief and its people.

They must adopt the great Islam as a Risaalah message that calls the diaspora to be proud of their great Deen, and which assigns them with the duty of conveying this good to those among whom they live from the People of the Book, to save them from the injustice of capitalism and capitalists, and to bring them into the justice and light of Islam.

﴿ادْعُ إِلَى سَبِيلِ رَبِّكَ بِالْحُكْمَةِ وَالْمَوْعِظَةِ الْحَسَنَةِ وَجَادِلْهُمْ بِالَّتِي هِيَ أَحْسَنُ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِمَنْ ضَلَّ عَنْ سَبِيلِهِ وَهُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِالْمُهْتَدِينَ﴾

“Invite all to the Way of your Lord with wisdom and kind advice, and only debate with them in the best manner. Surely your Lord Alone knows best who has strayed from His Way and who is rightly guided.” [TMQ Surah An-Nahl 16:125]
