

The Murderer, Cruel, Coup Plotter Sisi Changed to My Brother Sisi!

News:

Türkiye President Recep Tayyip Erdogan met with Egyptian President Abdulfettah el-Sisi, who visited Turkey.

Comment:

President Sisi was welcomed by President Erdogan at Esenboğa Airport. Erdogan and Sisi, who met for a while at the Esenboğa Airport Hall of Honor, then passed to the presidential complex with the same authority vehicle. An official welcoming ceremony was held for Sisi at the presidential complex. President Abdel Fattah el-Sisi, in a statement on his account X before his visit to Turkey, stated that he was happy to have the opportunity to visit Turkey and meet with President Erdogan. During his visit, Sisi emphasized the deep-rooted historical relations between Egypt and Turkey and drew attention to the strong political ties between Turkey and Egypt since Mustafa Kemal Atatürk - who deconstructed the caliphate - the Khilafah. He continued, "My visit today (to Ankara) and President Erdogan's previous visit to Cairo reflect the will to start a new friendship and cooperation between Egypt and Turkey.". In addition, Sisi, referring to the situation in Gaza, stated that Turkey's full support for the diplomacy conducted by pointing to the diabolical US plan "two-state solution" and said: "We have decided to work together on the regional humanitarian crisis. We need to work together more for Gaza. We have agreed on the establishment of a ceasefire, the end of violations in the West Bank, and the establishment of a Palestinian State with East Jerusalem as its capital."

What state is Sisi talking about? From the neighborhood state or from the tribal state? This bloody-handed dictator did not care about Gaza at all. Sisi's only concern is to please America, his master, and make them interests paramount. He's too treacherous to even move without America's permission. If Sisi had been sincere about Gaza, he would have immediately mobilized the armies under his command and uprooted the cursed Jewish existence from that blessed land.

As a matter of fact, Egyptian Foreign Minister Bedr Abdulati denied the allegations that weapons were sent to Gaza through the tunnels in a statement, stating that "Israel" also knows that they have been fighting terrorism over the past decade, they have completely destroyed thousands of tunnels and spent a lot of financial money on it. Will these traitors claim Gaza? What is the difference between them and Decapitated Netanyahu in his hostility to Islam and Muslims? These are more Jews than the actual Jews!

President Erdogan, on the other hand, stated at a press conference held together with Sisi that "the contributions of the two countries to regional peace and stability are of vital importance" and said: "We have agreed on regular consultations, especially in Gaza. Palestine was the focus of our negotiations. We have a common position on this issue. the end of the genocide that has been going on for 11 months and the ceasefire continue to be our priority." Erdogan continued, "Israel is trying to break the Palestinian will, which it could not break with bombs, with hunger and thirst. On the other hand, Egypt is mediating the negotiations together with Qatar and America. We are also providing support. However, Israel's uncompromising attitude continues. Finally, the negotiation has shown its intention by martyring its interlocutor."

As for President Erdogan, it is a complete disgrace that he praises Sisi and assigns him a share of success in this direction, without reminding Sisi, whom America calls my favorite dictator, to keep Gaza Muslims in the throes of war and hunger by not opening Egypt's aid doors.

Erdogan has repeatedly targeted Sisi with expressions such as "murderer", "tyrant", "coup leader", "dictator" for years, and did not attend the official dinner at the UN General Assembly in order not to be at the same table with Sisi in 2019. Erdogan defended this attitude with the words "I will not sit at the same table and legitimize the coup plotters". But the same Erdogan shook hands with Sisi, with whom he had been 'with a bloody knife' for years, at the end of 2022 and finally congratulated Sisi, who was re-elected president last December. It seems that; the next guest of Erdogan, who welcomed the "murderer" and "putschist" Sisi with an official state ceremony and gave meals at the complex in his honor, will again be Syrian President Bashar al-Assad, the murderer of his people.

Therefore, these two leaders have come together as per the order of America. Both Turkey and Egypt are America's active instruments in the region. Both states are actively conducting politics in the region on behalf of America.
