

Change of Agency by Proxy

Yesterday, it was Iran; Today, it is Türkiye

(Translated)

News:

Turkish President Erdogan said, “We hope to reach a ceasefire soon in Gaza, and just as faith and patience triumphed in Syria over the Assad regime, the Palestinian state must see the light.” (Al Jazeera, 06/01/2024).

Comment:

The cards of Iran, which are allied with the remnants of the tyrant Bashar’s regime, have been burned. Iran had worked hard to prevent his downfall by infiltrating its militias into Syria, during the revolution. Iran had an indifferent stance towards the massacres taking place in Gaza, in compliance with American dictations. Iran undertook repeated attempts to pressure and contain Hamas so that it could be a tool to enhance its regional influence... That was then. Now, Türkiye is taking the torch from Iran, to work forcefully to implement the American project, represented by the two-state solution, which recognizes the Jewish entity and legitimizes the occupation.

Türkiye, which revolves in America’s orbit, is no different from Iran. Both regimes serve American interests. Both regimes are traitors against Allah (swt) and His Messenger (saw). They work to consolidate the occupation in Palestine instead of mobilizing the armies of Muslims to uproot this monstrous entity, from the heart of the Islamic Ummah.
