

Actions Speak Louder Than Words

News:

AK Party Spokesperson Ömer Çelik made a statement on the International Day to Combat Islamophobia and said: "Wherever there are attacks against Islamic values, we see that there is an inhuman hatred targeting all humanity and the civilized world.

Developed democracies are not effective enough in combating Islamophobia. This leads to their democracies being besieged by fascists. Everyone needs to understand that combating Islamophobia is tantamount to defending human values. The combat against Islamophobia is a matter for all humanity. Western states and politicians should take more responsibility in this combat." (Agencies 16.03.2025)

Comment:

Deceptive explanations, fancy words, fiery expressions may sound nice, but they do not go beyond useless words that have no equivalent in the scale of truth. As we have repeatedly said, rulers, those in executive positions, do not complain. They are in charge of Muslims to solve problems, to repel attacks, to be the guardians of Islam. However today, the rulers who are apostles of democracy complain about Islamophobes in democratic countries and ask them to combat them. It is absurd to expect western states to combat against Islamophobia when their secular aqeedah (doctrine), being their ideology and principles, is based on hostility to Islam. The successors of today's democratic countries, which for centuries used all kinds of sedition and corruption and methods to remove Islam from the life scene, achieved this goal a century ago and abolished the Khilafah, the protective shield of Muslims, through their local agents. Today's western democratic states do not hesitate to openly express their hostility to Islam and Muslims who are left without a shield.

The problem is not that they are hostile to Islam and Muslims. They will continue this hostility until the Day of Judgment as a requirement of their beliefs and ideas. Just like the hostility of Satan. The problem is with the democratic leaders who plague Muslims. The problem is that you see secularism, feeding capitalism – which is their ideology – in these lands, and which is their evil aqeedah, as insurance in the state administration. The problem is that you are slaves to the idea of democracy that spreads sedition and corruption under the name of freedoms. Allowing and even supporting these ideas and thoughts to poison Muslims. The West, which you expect to combat those who are hostile to Islam! The enemies of Islam, the leaders you do not hesitate to shake hands with, who draw crosses on their foreheads, appear on screens and defend the Gaza massacre. The kafir U.S. being in the first place, who has the blood of millions of Muslims on their hands and with whom you are proud to be strategic allies, will the other western savages combat Islamophobia? While the outpourings of advanced democracies that fund and support attacks on our values under the name of freedom of opinion and belief, and protect the unruly are obvious...

There is no contradiction in their deeds and words as it happens. They are doing what is necessary to fulfill their hostility against Islam and Muslims. O Çelik! O Erdoğan! If you are really disturbed by the West's hostility against Islam, declare that you have abandoned democracy, their ruling system, and secularism, their aqeedah. Leave the evil unions they have established without any real political calculation. Replace it with the immaculate system of Islam. Then your actions will speak louder than your words and your words will have weight.... Islam has come to overthrow the reign of all the superstitious ruling systems and tyrants. Hence their fear and hostility. Therefore, the way to make the enemies of Allah and the Muslims face their fear is to make the system of Islam prevail.
