

Europe Continues to Support the Genocide in Gaza

News:

The genocide has now been ongoing for two years.

Nevertheless, the European Union remains the largest trading partner of the Zionist entity, with trade amounting to 42 trillion euros.

Despite empty slogans about recognizing a Palestinian state, Europe continues to export weapons to the Zionist entity. Leaked information obtained by the Danish newspaper Information reveals that as recently as August, the Danish state sent weapons components for the aircraft used to kill children in Gaza.

The Dutch Supreme Court has also ruled that it will not interfere in the Dutch government's shipments of aircraft parts for the Zionists' F-35 fighter jets.

Comment:

The mask that the West has used to colonize the world — the mask of so-called human rights and the notion that we are the good and civilized ones while everyone else is evil — has completely cracked.

The West has gone to great lengths to preserve its modern settler colony in Palestine, because it knows that its collapse would mark the end of Western hegemony over the Muslim world. The Zionist occupation is the symbol of the West's victory over Islam, and if this illegitimate entity falls, it would signify that the Islamic world is on its way to revival.

This would give the Muslim world an indescribable sense of confidence and drive the Muslim ummah forward toward the ultimate victory over Western imperialism.

There is therefore no price the West is not willing to pay to keep the Zionist occupation alive. They have sacrificed money and what little credibility they might have left in order to keep the Zionist entity artificially sustained.

But it will not last long. The whole world has realized that the West is nothing but a monster, and the Muslim world is truly beginning to awaken and rise against the treacherous and tyrannical regimes. The protests in Morocco are only the beginning and a strong sign that this Ummah is not dead, as the Zionists believe.

No — it is alive, and it is only a matter of time before it regains the world's respect and shows that leadership is possible without thuggery, bloodshed, or colonization — but through intellect and the values of Islam.
