

The Blood of Innocent Civilians

Has No Modicum of Importance to the Colonialist Infidel States!

News:

The repercussions of the blast in Ankara's Kızılay Square on March 13, which claimed 37 lives and injured more than 100 people, still continue. News Agencies

Comment:

First of all I ask Allah (swt) for mercy upon those who lost their lives, quick recovery for the injured and patience to their families.

During these last three attacks in Ankara over the last six months, dozens of people lost their lives and hundreds became wounded. As usual, statement by Government officials over these last attacks declared the determined continuation of operations towards terrorist organizations. As is the custom, statements by opposition parties held the Government responsible for such attack. And I used the following exact statements in my prior article: As long as this capitalist democratic system remains, such attacks will neither be for the first nor the last time! At the point we have reached now we would prefer to be wrong. Unfortunately however; these attacks have occurred and seem to be continuing. Consequently, it is impossible to cure this disease unless it is correctly diagnosed. Because the true cause of corruption and terrorism lies in the implemented democratic system.

First of all, it is very clear that it is the colonialist Kuffar states who are at the back of such attacks. Thus any condemning publications and messages of condolence by colonial states about the last attack as well as those immediately after the prior attacks are far from sincerity, because the true terrorists and perpetrators are those colonial states. A special attention has to be paid to America and England. Both states have the power to make capital of such attacks. Both are fighting for their own interests. These states do not care the least about the blood of innocent people. It is of particular significance that the American Embassy had warned its citizens only two days prior to the attacks!

The PKK's leader in Kandil, Mustafa Karasu, stated in an article he wrote for a newspaper right after the Ankara attack that this attack aimed at the riot police. Additionally he emphasized the importance of their Union of 10 organizations titled "The People's Union Movement". Mustafa Karasu is one of the important names in the organization, who is known with his English demeanour and who is close to the current PKK leader Cemil Bayık. This group of 10 organisations, that I mentioned before, is based on a socialist creed and is rather extreme. The state that uses these type of organisations is usually England. In other words, the English (powers) or extremist nationalists of Turkey have used such marginal organisations from time to time as tools or pawns to put through their political objectives. We see examples of this in the past, as well as in recent times. Alongside this; it is rather meaningful that PKK leader Cemil Bayık said short before the upcoming Nawruz celebrations that this kind of violent attacks will soar, and that revenge will be taken for the Government's military operations against the PKK in the East and South-East. Correspondingly Cemil Bayık said in his last interview with the British Times, "We want to overthrow Erdogan and the AKP", and added the following: "Until a short time ago; fight against the Turkish army was only in the mountains. Then it slopped over to the towns and cities. Now it's going to be everywhere. At this stage of the struggle, every order to be fulfilled by our guerrillas will be legitimate" These expressions show that the conflict will intensify further. Moreover; that one of the perpetrators was trialled for a PKK case in the past years, also shows that this attack was much probably an act conducted by the PKK organisation. Thus, while I am writing these lines, the TAK organisation known as close to the PKK has claimed this attack. Therefore if Turkey wants to get rid of this kind of violent actions, it has immediately to end its strategic cooperation with the colonialist Kuffar and suspend all agreements. All embassies of these states have to be closes immediately and their ambassadors have to be deported. Otherwise, as long these dirty relations are maintained, there will be no end to the bloodshed and blood will continue to flow. Until the Khilafah State (Caliphate) becomes established.
