

This is The “See No Evil, Hear No Evil, Speak No Evil” World

News:

During an interview with the Union of Newspaper Reporters Former Foreign Minister of Greece Nikos Kotzias revealed on Tuesday that currently 93 cases of Greek diplomats were allegedly involved in issuing illegal visas to unaccompanied children. The former minister said that some of the diplomats are already in jail because of his initiative and he alleged that issuing visas to unaccompanied children is tantamount to organ trafficking, stating “Do you know what visas to unaccompanied children means? It means organ trafficking. Only the fact that I saved some lives will (allow me to) sleep in peace,” the former foreign minister stated. Comment:

According to a 2015 UNICEF report, approximately 28 percent of identified victims of trafficking globally are children. More than 10,000 refugee children disappeared into the hands of human traffickers in the “human-and-children-rights-guarding” Europe already two years ago. No actual numbers have been provided since then anymore.

Whatever the motivation of Greece’s Former Foreign Minister was, the reason for why Greece’s judiciary got in action is less the concern about the children’s whereabouts, than the breach of their national security principles. The whole world knows that human trafficking is only possible with the support of high-level authorities across the world. It is not for the first time that somebody voiced concern or complaint about high-level involvement in human trafficking. Yet, the existing world-order makes mankind “see no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil”. And this world-order is maintained and even enforced through the hands of corrupt rulers throughout the Muslim world, who act as the cat’s paws of the colonialists and fight their wars, and impose their ideologies in our lands. While Greece’s Former Foreign Minister hopes to find peaceful nights from now on, the leaders of the Muslim world have no concerns of the like. They are already confirmed three monkeys and sworn pawns of their colonialist masters. None of the Muslim leaders see, hear or act to the atrocities in the Blessed Land Palestine, where the Zionist forces detained 908 and killed more than 50 Muslim children since January 1. None of them is concerned about the children and families of the more than 2 million Uighurs Muslims, who are forced into “political camps for indoctrination” in China! They do not care about the ethnic cleansing in Myanmar! Throughout the last three years 85,000 children in Yemen starved to death and 2,575 children have been killed, over 4,000 injured through the hands of the American and British pawns, the Saudi led coalition forces and the Houthis. Another 1.8 million children may face starvation if this war continues.

It is an undeniable fact that children, women and men can only be subjugated to inhumane treatment in the absence of a truly just, humane and protecting system. Such a system was and will only be the Khilafah (Caliphate) upon the Method of Prophethood. With this existing world order and these puppet monkeys upon us we will never bring an end to the countless evil that Muslim and non-Muslim children face.
