Comment:

For the US, Eurasia is the most important region in its foreign policy to stamp its hegemony in this resourceful region. America is trying to ensure that no competitor emerges in that region. And America sees China as the real competitor in this region. Since early 90's, the US think tanks always viewed China as the greatest threat to the US interest, for that in Asia-Pacific, the US used the number of countries to sabotage China's rise as naval power. They employed Indian subcontinent to counter the rise of China as the dominant power in Eurasia. The US successfully managed to strengthen its capabilities through large number of alliances in Asia-Pacific in early 90's but in subcontinent it managed its major alliance when BJP first came in to power in late 90's.

During the Bush administration, major portion of US foreign policy for Asia was focused on bridging the military gap between India and China. Tension over Kashmir between India and Pakistan was the real hurdle that was stopping India to act like the way the US wants in the region against China's might. To overcome these tensions, the US began the process Normalization between India and Pakistan in order to neutralize and stop the Indian and Pakistan's forces to fight each other over Kashmir. And India then should direct its efforts to serve the American interest in this region to counter China's rapidly growing military and economic might.

So the US decided to handle this matter in the same style used in Palestine where Abbas authority in Palestine and Arab countries around are not taking Military actions rather doing mere Lip-service instead, likewise despite India's 5th Aug action of course with the US consent!, the Pakistani Civil and military authorities are doing the same by utter mere rhetoric and slogans like “We are standing with Kashmir” nor this solidarity will stop spilling sacred blood of Muslims at the hands of Idolaters neither will save our Sister's children.

Our calamity is the rulers of the Muslim world. Our strength is sufficient enough to restore our pride and teach the disbelievers a lesson that will be with them till their graves. But our rulers betrayed Allah (swt) and His Messenger (saw) and the believers by kneeling to their master, the Kuffar more then they bow to Allah, the Lord of the world. And they prevent their armies to strike the Kuffar and liberate occupied Muslim lands rather beg with humiliation to the UN / the US . But all these occupied lands from Palestine to Kashmir and Afghanistan to Burma will return by Allah's permission under the flag of Khilafah under the rightly guided Khaleefa. Whoever wants to attain pride in this world and hereafter must start working with the people working to re-establish the Khilafah and allow this work to run in his blood, his heart and limbs sincerely and honestly.
