Hizb ut Tahrir / Britain to Protest American Interference in Pakistan's Politics

Members of Hizb ut Tahrir in Britain will gather outside the Pakistan High Commission in London at 2:30pm on Saturday 7th May to protest against the interference of America in the politics of Pakistan. The event is titled "Independence not Intervention - Stop US Interference and Normalisation with India".

Speakers will address the tragic reality of American involvement in Pakistan's internal and external affairs, such that they effectively decide who will run the country, what its economic policy will be, and whether it should defend Kashmir or abandon it in its agenda of normalisation with India.

Muslims in Britain should make their voices heard that they reject American interference and the surrender of Muslim land to the ultra-nationalist Indian regime at the behest of America, which neither serves the population of Pakistan nor furthers the Islamic project to offer Islam to the world.
