John Kirby, You Are the Ones Who Shed the Blood of the Muslims! “It Inflicted Me With Its Disease and Slipped Away”

(Translated)

John Kirby - the Coordinator for Strategic Communications at the US National Security Council - raised his voice by describing Sinwar as a terrorist, whose hands are stained with the blood of innocents, some of whom are Americans. He said this in response to Sinwar's selection as the head of the political bureau of Hamas.

The questions that arise in this context are: Who is the biggest terrorist in the world? Who is the largest entity whose hands are stained with the blood of innocents in the world? And who sheds the blood of innocent Muslims and others in the world?

When talking about stained hands with the blood of innocents, let Kirby be silent, and let all leaders and politicians in America be silent, and let them be ashamed of themselves, because the whole world has been afflicted by American evil over two and a half centuries; starting from the establishment of this American entity on the skulls of the Native Americans, and passing through Central and South America and its wars there, and in Africa, Eastern Europe, East and Central Asia, two World Wars, and the dropping of nuclear bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and not ending with the Muslim countries, and its occupation of Somalia, Iraq and Afghanistan, and its wars in Yemen and Libya, in addition to what it has killed at the hands of its agents in Syria, Sudan and elsewhere.

Kirby claims that innocent Americans were killed, and the question directed to him is: Where were these 'innocents' killed? Were they killed on American soil? Or were they the aggressors and killers; since they were killed in the land of Palestine, which is occupied by the Jewish entity, America's foster child, the entity that America supplies with the war machine and tools of destruction?

How many people has America killed throughout its dark history, from Muslims and others? How many Muslims have been killed in the Blessed Land - Palestine with American weapons and ammunition? We are not exaggerating if we say that America has killed millions of people everywhere in the world throughout its dark history dripping with blood!

America has dominated the world and become arrogant, shed human blood, and even destroyed trees and stones. All of this was during a period of heedlessness on the part of the Islamic Ummah. America did what it did without fearing anyone. But we give it the good news that the period of heedlessness of Muslims is over, and that the Islamic Ummah as it awakens and become aware of its cause, America will soon see from the Muslims what it is wary of and fears; when the Islamic Ummah rises up as one man, establishes its Khilafah (Caliphate), and its armies set out to liberate Palestine and the rest of the occupied Muslim lands, and carry the message of guidance, justice, and truth to all people, and put an end to America's arrogance and domination. And that will be soon, Allah willing.
