O Descendants of the Conquerors: Will You Accept Being Prisoners to Agreements Imposed by Your Enemies?!

(Translated)

The Jewish entity continues to accuse Egypt of violating the military annex of the Camp David Agreement, along with demands to dismantle the military infrastructure that the Egyptian army has established in Sinai. These accusations come as part of the ongoing attempts of the Jewish entity to impose its dominance over the Islamic ummah and keep it under its control. They also reflect its concern about the potential redirection of Egypt's military machine against it in the event of the fall of the Egyptian regime or instability in Egypt, leading to the regime losing control over the army. This is why it is working to preempt events and empty the region of any army capable of confronting it if circumstances change or sincere leaders come to power.

O People of Kinanah (Egypt), O shield and unbreakable fortress of the Ummah:

The Jewish entity continues its arrogance and tyranny, deluding itself that Egypt and its people will remain shackled by agreements of humiliation and surrender, which have brought nothing but disgrace and shame to Muslims, while the Jewish entity continues its aggression and expansion of its influence. Their repeated provocations against Egypt, starting with the deliberate killing of Egyptian soldiers under the pretext of an "unintentional mistake," to the brazen demands to dismantle the military infrastructure in Sinai, to the increasing international pressure for more dictates, clearly show that the Jewish entity recognizes only the logic of power and understands only the language of iron and fire.

What is happening today is not a mere incident but another episode in the continuous series of dominance and blackmail, an extension of an old and ongoing plan aimed at shackling Egypt and preventing it from returning to its natural role as the protector of the Ummah and the defender of the Blessed Land of Palestine. The Jewish entity, backed by the West, seeks to keep Egypt hostage to the disgraceful agreement that has imposed humiliating restrictions on its army and left Sinai empty of any deterrent force that could pose a threat to this illegitimate entity.

But the real question is: Will Egypt remain shackled by these unjust agreements? Will the people of Kinanah accept being placed under the guardianship of an usurping enemy, dictated to about what they can and cannot do in their own land? Or are there free men in Egypt, men of power and strength, who realize that the era of surrender has passed, and that Egypt is not just an ordinary country but the beating heart of the Ummah, its fortress, and the stronghold of Islam?

The provocations against Egypt do not exist in a vacuum; they are part of a Western project that seeks to tighten its grip on the region and ensure that the Jewish entity remains the dominant power in the Middle East. But this project can only succeed if the Ummah remains passive and submissive. However, if the Ummah awakens and Islam once again rules over it, then this entity is doomed to disappear, by Allah's permission.

O People of Kinanah: Islam has not commanded us to wait for international approval to protect our lands, nor has it made our security dependent on the satisfaction of our enemies. Rather, it has made it obligatory upon us to be honored, so that no enemy dares to challenge us, and no one covets our land or our sanctities. It pains us deeply to see the Jewish entity daring to provoke Egypt while its army possesses the strength to erase this entity from existence, yet it remains shackled by restrictions that serve no purpose other than to fulfill the dictates of the colonialist West.

O Soldiers of Kinanah, O Guardians of the Faith and Defenders of the Homeland:

Is it not time for you to break free from these humiliating shackles? Is it not time for you to be like Salahuddin, who refused to see Al-Quds in the hands of the Crusaders, so he mobilized the Ummah and prepared for battle until he purified it from their filth? The Blessed Land is crying out for your help, the people of Gaza are being slaughtered before your eyes, and the Jews are not content with just killing them, they also seek to subjugate and humiliate you. Will you accept this disgrace, or will you rise for the sake of Allah, shake off the dust of humiliation, take a stand against the traitors and collaborators, and march on the path of honor and victory?

Your duty, O heroes, is not to protect false agreements imposed by the West, but to protect the Ummah, repel aggression, and liberate the blessed land from the usurping Jews. There is no dignity for Egypt except through its jihad in the cause of Allah, and no honor except in breaking the chains of Camp David and freeing itself from Western subjugation.

O Free People of Egypt:

The Jewish entity is at its weakest, despite its displays of arrogance and pride. It is besieged by fear and anxiety, knowing that it is an alien presence in this land, and that its survival depends on the continued weakness and division of the Muslims. But it also knows well that the moment Muslims unite and come together, its inevitable downfall will follow.

So, will you be the ones to initiate this change? Will you remain silent while the Jews demand the dismantling of your military strength, or will you take a stand worthy of your honor and say to this usurping enemy: Enough!

The solution does not lie in begging or negotiations but in sincere efforts to restore the Ummah to its former strength, an Ummah that rules by Islam and leads the world with justice and mercy. This will only be achieved through the reestablishment of the Khilafah Rashidah (rightly guided Caliphate) on the method of the Prophethood, which will unite the ranks of the Muslims and restore their stolen authority. Be its soldiers and hasten to support your deen, for history will not be merciful to those who abandon their duty.

O People of Kinanah:

This moment is decisive, either you stand against the Jews and restore Egypt's honor, or you remain shackled, facing dire consequences. But we have confidence that there is much goodness in you, that you will accept nothing but honor and victory. One day, you will remember that you stood at a crossroads and chose the path of truth, marching on it until Allah honored you with victory and empowerment.

So, fear Allah regarding your Ummah, fear Allah regarding your brothers and sisters in Palestine, fear Allah regarding your Deen.

﴿وَلَيَنْصُرَنَّ اللَّهُ مَن يَنْصُرُهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ لَقَوِيٌّ عَزِيزٌ﴾

“And Allah will surely support those who support Him. Indeed, Allah is Powerful and Exalted in Might.” [Surat Al-Hajj: 40]
