Sharm El-Sheikh Conference Is to Declare Victory Over the Ummah, Consolidate Subordination, and Anchor the Occupation

(Translated)

After Trump declared the victory he and his protégé, the Jewish entity, achieved in his speech before the Knesset. This victory was achieved against unarmed civilians, including women, children, and the elderly, as well as trees and stones, the Butcher of Gaza headed to the conference arranged by his agent in Egypt, Sisi, to which he invited all those who conspired against the blessed land. The conference was held in Sharm El-Sheikh on 13/10/2025, under the title "Sharm El-Sheikh Peace Summit." More than twenty countries and international organizations were in attendance, headed by US President Trump and Egyptian President Sisi, with broad participation from Arab and Western leaders, including the Jordanian monarch, the Emir of Qatar, the French president, the Turkish president, the Prime Minister of Pakistan, and the Prime Minister of Indonesia, in addition to European and Asian delegations. This conference came just days after the announcement of a ceasefire agreement between the occupation and Hamas, which included a prisoner exchange, a cessation of hostilities, and the opening of negotiations for the administration and reconstruction of the Gaza Strip.

Despite the conference's lustrous title, which claims to promote peace, stability, and reconstruction, its reality does not entirely contradict its title. The true essence of the conference was a Trumpian celebration of the victory claimed by the Jewish entity, presenting it as a great achievement deserving of the Nobel Peace Prize—an award never awarded to those who represent lofty values and principles or for achievements that truly serve humanity. Through the conference, Trump sought to present himself as the master and sole decision-maker in creating and shaping the Middle East issue. Furthermore, Trump explicitly called on the ruwaibidha (insignificant ignorant rulers) of the Muslim countries to join the Abraham Accords, meaning to install the occupying state as king of the new Middle East he desires.

Egypt played a pivotal role in hosting the summit and providing Arab cover for the American arrangements, as it did in previous ceasefire agreements. The Egyptian regime is committed to the Camp David Accords, which restricted its military movements and transformed it into a guardian of the borders of the Jewish entity. Today, it presents itself as a "neutral" mediator, while its true role is to pave the way for the rest of the Muslim countries to normalize relations with the Jews, in fulfillment of America's will and to guarantee the security of the Jews from any threat from the Ummah.

These evil conspirators in Sharm El-Sheikh do not represent the issue of Palestine, nor do they belong to the Islamic Ummah, the owner of the cause. The duty of liberating Palestine and avenging its martyrs is a heavy responsibility that can only be undertaken by the men of men. ﴿صَدَقُوا مَا عَاهَدُوا اللَّهَ عَلَيْهِ﴾ “Some of them have fulfilled their pledge

(with their lives)” [Al Ahzab: 23]. And these will not be the ruwaibidha (insignificant ignorant rulers). Any agreement or conference based on recognizing the Jewish entity, coexisting with it, and establishing its presence on any inch of the land of Palestine is categorically invalid, because it contradicts the definitive Islamic ruling that the entire Blessed Land must be liberated, and that it is forbidden to relinquish any part of it. Allah (swt) says: ﴿وَقَاتِلُوهُمْ حَتَّى لَا تَكُونَ فِتْنَةٌ وَيَكُونَ الدِّينُ كُلُّهُ لِلَّهِ﴾ “Fight against them until there is no more persecution—and ‘your’ devotion will be entirely to Allah.” [Al-Anfal: 39]. Allah (swt) says: ﴿وَمَا لَكُمْ لَا تُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالْمُسْتَضْعَفِينَ﴾ “And what is it with you? You do not fight in the cause of Allah and for oppressed” [An-Nisa: 75].

This conference is part of a broader American project to reorder the region, integrate the Jewish entity into it, and liquidate the issue of Palestine through fabricated political processes after exhausting the people of Gaza with wars and a blockade. These processes seek to introduce an international monitoring force to oversee security arrangements and ensure the safety of the Jews, with the assistance of Arab regimes, led by the Egyptian regime. Playing this role is a crime of treason, as it is not based on the interests of the Ummah, but rather on subservience to the American master and the implementation of his plans.

The duty towards Gaza is not to hold conferences or wait for international resolutions, but rather to mobilize Muslim armies to liberate the blessed land from the sea to the river. These armies are capable of crushing the Jewish entity in an hour of the day. As for the rulers, they are the greatest obstacle to the movement of these armies, because they are traitors bound by agreements of humiliation and military restrictions (Camp David, Wadi Araba, Oslo, and Abraham Accords). From here begins the real work of liberating Palestine by uprooting these regimes and establishing the Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly-Guided Caliphate) on the method of Prophethood, which mobilizes the armies and pushes them towards what Allah (swt) has obliged them to do and adopts jihad to liberate the land and unify the Ummah.

O Soldiers of Kinanah (Egypt): You are not America's soldiers nor tools for implementing its plans. Rather, you are part of the Ummah of Muhammad (saw) responsible according to the Islamic law of supporting the oppressed and raising high the word of Allah. What is happening in Sharm El-Sheikh, under your hearing, sight and protection, is not a victory for Gaza, but rather a consolidation of its siege and the enemy's hegemony over its destiny, giving the Jews what they could never gain despite everything they did to Gaza and its people. The obligatory Islamic response is to reject such conferences, expose their goals, and move toward true liberation, not "false peace".

“And what is it with you? You do not fight in the cause of Allah and for oppressed men, women, and children” [An-Nisa: 75]
