The Wall of Muslim Countries is an Enclosure for Dogs after the Absence of the Khilafah!

(Translated)

Twenty years after America's occupation of Iraq, an unannounced visit of its Defense Secretary, Lloyd Austin, comes within the framework of a Middle Eastern tour that began with Jordan to include Egypt and the Jewish entity, in an effort to assure the main allies of the American commitment to the region. This sudden visit to Iraq reveals an important message, namely the consolidation of the American presence in Iraq, as Austin stated: "I'm here to reaffirm the U.S.-Iraq strategic partnership as we move toward a more secure, stable, and sovereign Iraq." Underestimating and belittling Al-Sudani government born from the womb of the coordination framework, that framework that cracked our heads with threats and intimidation of the American forces since the killing of Qasem Soleimani, the commander of the Iranian Quds Force, and until the birth of this monstrous government to confirm, and in the words of its president, Muhammad Shia Al-Sudani, during Austin's reception that "The government is keen to strengthen and consolidate relations with the United States of America, at various levels," he said.

As for the second message, it is the American pressure on the Sudanese government to emancipate it from the Iranian hegemony represented by the framework. It was stated by former officials and experts, "One of the goals of Austin's visit is to support the Iraqi Prime Minister Muhammad Shia'a al-Sudani in confronting Iranian influence in his country." In this regard, America has a strong pressure card on the Iraqi government, as Iraq ranks fourth in terms of the volume of US military aid. It is pushing the Sudanese government to change some positions related to Iraqi-Iranian relations, in order to continue providing this grant.

As for the third message that was not highlighted, but it is very important for the American occupier, it is what an Iraqi government source said to the BBC that "the US Secretary of Defense will discuss with Iraqi Prime Minister Muhammad Shia al-Sudani files targeting American interests in Iraq, and unofficial border crossings" between Iraq, Syria and Iran." Ihsan al-Shammari, head of the Iraqi Political Thinking Center, and Hadeel Aweys, a journalist from Washington, confirmed that one of the goals of this visit is to ensure that Iraqi lands are not a platform for any attacks targeting American interests, as well as the interests of the Jewish entity.

O Muslims: Political positions are determined by situations and events. As for statements, they often avoid reality, and there are many examples of that. Since the Khomeini's revolution, Iran has declared hostility to America and describes it as the Great Satan, at a time when facts and events deny this claim. Iran provided great services to America in its occupation of Iraq, starting with the formation of the government loyal to it after Paul Bremer determined that the Shiite component would lead the government, passing through sectarianism.

Another example is the Iranian-Saudi media hostility, at a time when both seek to serve American interests, and Yemen is a witness to that. The Saudi regime's fight against the Iranian-backed Houthis was to strengthen them to be a part in the negotiations, not to eliminate them.

O Muslims: This is your situation after the demise of your state, a torn Ummah, divided countries, and rulers who are Ruwaibidah and who keen on the interests of their Kuffar masters, until the wall of your country has become a territory for dogs, controlling every small and big issue in it, where they enter and leave and graze whenever they want, and plan and draw for us the political, economic and security life, in addition to others, so will there be humiliation after this humiliation?!

Is after this humiliated life humiliation?! Isn't it time for you to come back to your senses?! And remove this humiliation from your necks?! Allah does not change what is in a people until they change what is in themselves. So we call upon you Muslims to work for the arbitration of Allah's Shariah and His support, and Allah is your Supporter and will not abandon your deeds.
