The Heroic Jihadist Operation by Hossam and Amer Against the Jewish Soldiers Denies Any Excuse for the Army's Failure to Act Against their Entity

(Translated)

The heroic operation, in which two young men from Jordan, Amer Al-Qawas and Hossam Abu Ghazaleh, were martyred as they infiltrated the borders with occupied Palestine south of the Dead Sea on foot and courageously attacked Jewish soldiers, causing injuries and possibly deaths, carries significant implications that must be addressed. It is also necessary to address the positions of those who failed to commend this operation:

- The Ummah, shackled by treacherous regimes collaborating with the Jewish entity, has not and will not remain silent in the face of the brutal acts of genocide carried out by the Jewish entity against the people of Palestine and Lebanon, and even Jordan. Jordan, which gave the martyr Maher Al-Jazi, will continue to produce heroic martyrs (shuhadaa) whose blood boils in their veins, waiting for opportunities and longing for jihad in the way of Allah.

- It is painful and disappointing that the Jordanian army, which is called upon to respond to help their brothers and sisters in Gaza, is inactive despite possessing substantial equipment and a major defense budget. Its role is reduced to protecting the eastern borders for the cowardly Jews, and it hastily denies these honorable acts of heroism, as a military source quickly denied that Jordanian soldiers had crossed the western border!

- It has been proven that the Jews are a cowardly people cursed with humiliation and wretchedness. No matter how much the collaborating regimes guard their borders, as is visibly apparent, they know that the Ummah's project is to eliminate their presence, contrary to the goals of their rulers. This is evident from the statement of their energy minister, who declared he would expedite the building of a fence along the border with Jordan.

- The reluctance to praise this heroic operation, to disavow it, or to issue cowardly warnings like the statements from the Jordanian regime's men saying, "We warn against being swayed by emotions at the expense of the country's security and stability," will be recorded as complicity with the enemies of the Ummah and the regimes they defend, misleading the people. They do not stand with the people of Jordan, who gathered by the thousands to support and congratulate the martyrdom of the two Jordanian heroes.

Soldiers of the Jordanian Army... Descendants of the Sahabah:

These individual acts of heroism, confronting the cowardly enemy across the borders, and martyrdom in the path of Allah to liberate the holy places, Al-Aqsa Mosque, and all of Palestine from the Jews and America, which continues to supply them with weapons, equipment, and espionage while spreading corruption, should stir within you a sense of honor and masculinity. You, the people of strength, referred to as "comrades in arms," should rise to defend Allah, His Messenger, and the Muslims, not your rulers who lead you to destruction and put you in service to your enemies. By Allah, security and stability in Jordan will only come when you act today to eradicate this vile group, thus earning Allah's pleasure and inscribing your names in the records of honor and dignity.

﴿وَلَا تَرْكَبُوا إِلَى الَّذِينَ ظَلَمُوا فَنَمَسْكُمُ النَّارُ وَمَا لَكُم مِّن دُونِ اللَّهِ مِنْ أَوْلِيَاءَ ثُمَّ لَا تُنصَرُونَ﴾

"And do not incline toward those who do wrong, lest you be touched by the Fire, and you would not have other than Allah any protectors; then you would not be helped."
