The Elimination of the Jewish Entity is the Only Solution, Not the Two-State Solution, Safadi

(Translated)

Jordanian Foreign Minister Ayman Safadi, during his participation in the World Economic Forum in Davos on Wednesday, 22/01/2025, stated that any future approach to Gaza must be based on the unity of the Gaza Strip with the West Bank and aim to achieve just peace based on the two-state solution. He said: "In the context of a political solution, the Palestinian government exclusively holds the decision for peace and war, and there should be no armed groups outside of it."

In a later statement, he emphasized the necessity of halting the dangerous escalation by the Jewish entity in the West Bank, warning of "the explosion of the situation in the region due to the continued policies of the (Israeli) extremist government towards Palestinians and its ongoing violations in Palestinian territories."

And in response to these repeated statements and their frequent reiteration every time the Jordanian regime's Foreign Minister is handed a microphone to speak—as if a recording device has been planted in his throat with these phrases, to the point that they have become offensive to both the general public and the elite due to their contradictions and detachment from reality—they are ignored by everyone except those who follow the regime's path of subservience and submission to all the enemies of the Ummah. Therefore, we clarify the following:

- What is referred to as the political solution, namely the two-state solution, is not only religiously prohibited but also a disgraceful betrayal and surrender—not just to the Jewish entity, but to all colonial powers, with America at the forefront. Moreover, it is a delusional idea with no feasible reality, as the Jewish entity is working to annex the West Bank following its genocidal war in Gaza. Meanwhile, America is enabling it to do so, and Trump, along with his extremist team supportive of the Jewish entity, blatantly disregards even the notion of creating a pseudo-state for Palestinians.

- As for the peoples of the Islamic Ummah, particularly those neighboring Palestine, they are now eagerly anticipating the fall of the regimes of subservience and submission. This comes after witnessing the steadfastness and unmatched victories of the proud people of Gaza, which have left an indelible mark on their hearts and minds—defeating the global war machine at the hands of the cowardly Jews. It has become firmly rooted in their Aqeedah that jihad in the path of Allah and the eradication of the Jewish entity is the only legitimate and realistic solution to the issue of Palestine.

- The claim made by the Jordanian Foreign Minister that, within the framework of a political solution, the "Palestinian government" exclusively holds the decision for peace and war, with no place for armed groups outside of it, is not only detached from reality but also entirely baseless. There is no such thing as a Palestinian government or authority; rather, there is a repressive apparatus for the people of Palestine that works to ensure the security of the Jewish entity with the blessings of America and Europe. Meanwhile, the presence of the mujahideen, who shake the foundations of the Jewish entity's security, is the true reality on the ground. They are the ones who have gained the world's attention through their achievements in Gaza. This statement reflects nothing but the alignment of the Jordanian regime with the actions of the treacherous Palestinian Authority, whose role has become killing resistance fighters instead of condemning this sedition, where the security apparatus of the Palestinian Authority kills its own people.

- Does Safadi and his regime not understand the implications of what he warns about regarding the "explosion of the situation in the region" due to the escalation of the Jewish entity's killings and genocide in the West Bank immediately after the fighting in Gaza ceases? This points to the intentions of the Jewish entity to annex the West Bank, along with the subsequent risks to Jordan, such as the forced or voluntary displacement of Palestinians into its territory, under the pretext of a new American administration, according to their political rhetoric. Does he not grasp this and prepare his regime for a genuine military confrontation to uproot this entity, especially with a supportive population eager for jihad and martyrdom, instead of bowing his head every time the Jewish entity pushes further with its ambitions?

- Perhaps they should listen to those who preceded them in the path of submission from among the regime's officials, such as former Foreign Minister and Jordan's first ambassador to the Jewish entity, Marwan Muasher. After Trump's inauguration, Muasher stated that regarding the fate of the Palestinian issue under Trump's new administration, the presence of an American team that is politically and religiously extremist heightens fears about the absence of any genuine intention to achieve a just solution to the Palestinian issue. Muasher had also said in statements published two years ago: "The time has come to acknowledge what has been evident for a few years: the two-state solution to end the Palestinian-'Israeli' conflict is dead and cannot be revived. The longer the international community clings to this impossible solution, the deeper the hole it digs for itself." Has the regime now reached a point where it can do nothing but buy a few more days before leading the country and its people to ruin?

- Finally, ﴿إِنَّ فِي ذَلِكَ لَذِكْرَىٰ لِمَن كَانَ لَهُ قَلْبٌ أَوْ أَلْقَى السَّمْعَ وَهُوَ شَهِيدٌ﴾ "Indeed in that is a reminder for whoever has a heart or who listens while he is present [in mind]." [Qaf:37]. The only solution to the issue of Palestine lies in the mobilization of the Ummah's armies to uproot the Jewish entity from all of Palestine and restore it to the embrace of the Ummah under the shade of the Khilafah Rashidah (rightly guided Caliphate), whose foundations are being laid as its popular support expands across the Muslim lands. This realization has been made possible after Allah enabled the Ummah to witness that such a solution is achievable, following 15 months of heroic combat by the mujahideen in Gaza. Despite the coalition of kufar, colonialism, and the submissive regimes conspiring against Gaza, the upcoming battle will not witness the same intensity of betrayal and subjugation. The Ummah's blood now boils with anger at the Jews' arrogance, America's support for them, and the backing of colonialist kufar, alongside the collaboration of their puppet rulers. These rulers are no longer merely exposed to their peoples but now await the day when they, too, will fall—just as others before them have fallen, like the despots of the Arab world. And the tyrant of Ash-Sham is not far from meeting the same fate.

﴿الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا يُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا يُقَاتِلُونَ فِي سَبِيلِ الطَّاغُوتِ فَقَاتِلُوا أَوْلِيَاءَ الشَّيْطَانِ إِنَّ كَيْدَ الشَّيْطَانِ كَانَ ضَعِيفًا﴾

"Those who believe fight in the cause of Allah, and those who disbelieve fight in the cause of Taghut. So fight against the allies of Satan. Indeed, the plot of Satan has ever been weak". [An-Nisa:76]
