O Secular Women, May Allah Not Raise a Banner or Achieve a Goal for You

(Translated)

The Coordination of Civil Democratic Forces (Taqaddum) announces the launch of the opening session of the Women's Thinking Meeting, as part of the activities of its founding conference. (Al Jazeera Sudan, May 25, 2024).

We, in the Women's Section of Hizb ut Tahrir / Wilayah Sudan, would like to clarify the following facts:

The women of Taqaddum who were ... during the period of the Kaht coalition government (FFC Civilian government) with the military, which lasted no less than two years, carried out deeds to secularize society, and they still believe that they fully enjoy their previous political license, which they took after the theft of the youth movement in December 2018, riding on the horse of the revolution of the people of Sudan, so they spewed the poisons of secularism, promising a life of freedom, and bragged about trampling on all values and ideals, raising slogans of freedom and liberation everywhere.

Now, it is enough to cultivate political illusions. These meetings will not intercede, but you, liberal women, and you want the women of Sudan to remove the garment of chastity and purity, and to imitate Western women like you, who are incapable of providing any benefit to their society or to themselves, other than being commodities to be bought and sold. We will not accept any trade in women's issues from you, and you will not deceive the women of Sudan again with flowery phrases, such as women's rights, the role of women, and self-realization. These slogans have been exposed, and they have come to represent the bleak face of the beggars of the colonial Western embassies, rebelling against the values, standards and convictions of the women of Sudan, which are based on the great Islam.

These gatherings and secular parties are just a tooth in the wheel of the declining Western civilization, Allah willing. Radical changes on the basis of Islam, by establishing the Khilafah Rashidah (rightly guided Caliphate) upon the method of the Prophethood, which implements the law of Allah Almighty, will throw them into the political dustbin forever, and will even hold them accountable for promoting a civilization that contradicts the concepts and ideas of Islam.

May Allah not raise a banner for you, nor make you achieve the goal in secularizing the women of the people of Sudan, in exchange for what the supporter who will kick you after running out of his supplies pays. The stench of trading in illusion is enough. What British Petronella White said, after she spent most of her life defending the feminist movement, where she wrote an article expressing her remorse, saying: "I am single, childless, and alone. The feminist movement has failed me, and it has failed my entire generation." (Source Britain Arabic).

The bet today is not on colonialism, nor on Western embassies, but rather on Islam, which is implemented by the Khilafah Rashidah (rightly guided Caliphate) state upon the method of the Prophethood, whose time is long, and whose dawn is near, Allah willing.
