Hizb ut Tahrir / Wilayah Sudan Carries Out a Stand and a Public Address in East Nile in Khartoum

(Translated)

The shabab of Hizb ut Tahrir / Wilayah Sudan in East Nile in Khartoum carried out, on Saturday, 10/01/2026, a stand and a political public address in Souq Sitta. The address was delivered by Ustadh Hammad Al-Dayi, a member of the Hizb, in which he explained the excellence of this Ummah, which fulfilled its duty in guiding humanity under the State of the Khilafah (Caliphate), until it was demolished by the disbelieving colonizer in Rajab 1342 AH. He reminded the Ummah of this painful event, and how, with the demolition of the Khilafah, it lost the Imam who is a shield, its unity was torn apart, and the disbelieving colonizer gained dominance over it in order to fragment its lands.

He then moved on to the obligation of working to restore it as a rightly guided state upon the method of Prophethood, and that this Shar'i obligation is one that all of us must undertake now.

During the stand and the address, the Hizb's shabab carried banners expressing the honor of the Ummah under the Khilafah, and reminding of the occasion.

The address received interaction from those present.
