America, the One Giving the Orders and Prohibitions in the War of Sudan, Throws Dust in the Eyes and Proceeds Forward with Its Plan to Separate Darfur

(Translated)

Reuters reported that America refuses to grant the Sudanese army commander, Abdel Fattah Al-Burhan, an entry visa, before his speech scheduled before the United Nations General Assembly on Thursday. Meanwhile, two sources told the agency that its issuance appears to be linked to his approval of a 90-day truce. In confirmation of the report, Al-Sudani Newspaper said, citing sources, that Al-Burhan rejected an American proposal that stipulates connection granting him an entry visa to America, to participate in the meetings of the United Nations General Assembly, with signing a three-month humanitarian truce.

America does not want to stop the war in Sudan at the present time, and does not want a truce as it claims. Rather, it wants the war to continue, until it reaches its objective in separating Darfur. Therefore, it carries out actions whose purpose is to complicate the scene, especially when it speaks about stripping both sides of legitimacy. Its Spokesman for the Department of State, Tommy Pigott, said in a statement last Tuesday that neither the armed forces nor the paramilitary Rapid Support Forces (RSF), nor any of their leaders, represent a legitimate and constitutional government. America here equates between the army of the country and those seeking to tear it apart, such as the RSF. And what it presented through the Boulos paper, on 20 June last, which they insist on calling a humanitarian truce, aims to separate Darfur, by showing the RSF as a parallel political entity possessing an administrative structure and a political program, sitting at the negotiating table as an equal to the Sudanese army.

Then, the ceasefire is completely an obstruction before the army to retake Darfur, and entrenching Hamidti's control over it. Now everyone sees how the army is being distracted from liberating Darfur in areas far from it, in Blue Nile, Southern Kordofan and its west, and others, with a green light from America, and with the help of its agents in the region.

It is the duty upon the people of Sudan to first become aware of America's plans to divide Sudan by separating Darfur, and not to fall into the trap of deception and misleading that happened previously in the process of separating South Sudan, and to work to cut off the hand of America and its envoy, and other international envoys; and that is by causing the people of strength and power to give support to Hizb ut Tahrir, to empower Islam; by establishing the Khilafah Rashidah (Rightly Guided Caliphate) on the method of the Prophethood, which prevents the tearing apart of Sudan, rather unites it with the rest of the lands of the Muslims, to eliminate the domination of the colonialist kuffar (disbelievers), and spreads guidance, light, and mercy throughout the world, which capitalism has filled with misguidance, corruption, and the enslavement of the weak.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اسْتَجِيبُوا لِلَّهِ وَلِلرَّسُولِ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ لِمَا يُحْيِيكُمْ﴾

“O you who have believed, respond to Allah and to the Messenger when he calls you to that which gives you life.” [Al-Anfal:24]
