The Authority Attacks Hizb ut Tahrir's Headquarters

(Translated)

On December 17, 2017, security forces wrongfully raided the headquarters of Hizb ut Tahrir, in the local district of Sidi Bouzid. They arrested the party's Shabab who were preparing for the events of the seventh anniversary of the spark of the revolution. They seized all banners and slogans and then besieged the headquarters. Other security units prevented some visitors from entering the city of Sidi Bouzid and detained the identity cards of some of them.

Although party officials there have already informed the local authorities, they have not yet provided any reason for these attacks, which bring us back to before the 17th of December 2010.
