Answer to Question

The Authenticity of the Hadith “I am Innocent of Those Who Lived for Forty Days Among the Kuffar”

To: Raja' Al-Ashhab
(Translated)

Question:

Assalam Alaikum Wa Rahmatullah Wa Barakatuh

What is the authenticity of the following Hadith: “I am innocent of those who lived forty days among the Kuffar”? And what is the Islamic ruling regarding a person who lives in a Kufr country for the purpose of work, because his country does not provide him with the same salary, or because there is no work? And what is the Shariah ruling on someone who lives in a Kufr country for the purpose of studying? May Allah reward you with the good.

Answer:

The Hadith was extracted by Abu Dawud in his Sunan, he said: Hanad Bin As-Sarri told us, Abu Mu'awiyah told us, on the authority of Ismail on the authority of Qais on the authority of Jarir Bin Abdullah said that the Messenger of Allah (saw) sent a military expedition to Khath'am. So, some people (living there) sought safety by prostrating, but they were met quickly and killed. News of this reached the Prophet (saw) upon which he commanded that they be given half of the 'Aql (blood money). And he said: «أَنَا بَرِيءٌ مِنْ كُلِّ مُسْلِمٍ يُقِيمُ بَيْنَ أَظْهُرِ الْمُشْرِكِينَ. قَالُوا يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ لِمَ؟ قَالَ: لَا تَرَاعَى نَارَاهُمَا» “I am free from every Muslim that lives among the idolaters (Al-Mushrikeen).” They said: "O Messenger of Allah: How is that?" He said: "They should not see each other's campfires.”

To understand the intended meaning, we mention the following:

In the Draft Constitution Volume II – in the explanation of Article 189:

[...The rules regarding Dar Al-Kufr are completely different to the rules regarding Dar Al-Islam, so there are rules specific to it:

If the Muslim who lives in Dar Al-Kufr is unable to openly practice the rituals of his Deen there, then he has to move to another Dar Al-Kufr in which he would be able to do so due to His (swt) words: ﴿إِنَّ الَّذِينَ تَوَفَّاهُمُ الْمَلَائِكَةُ ظَالِمِي أَنْفُسِهِمْ قَالُوا فِيمَ كُنْتُمْ قَالُوا كُنَّا مُسْتَضْعَفِينَ﴾ “Verily, as for those whom the angels take (in death) while they are wronging themselves, they (the angels) said: “In what (condition) were you” they reply: “We were weak and oppressed on the Earth” They say: “Was not the earth of Allah spacious enough for you to emigrate therein”. Such men will find their abode in Hell – what an evil destination” (An-Nisa: 97).

him: «قَوْمُكَ كَانُوا خَيْرًا لَكَ مِنْ قَوْمِي لِي، قَوْمِي أَخْرَجُونِي وَأَرَادُوا قَتْلِي، وَقَوْمُكَ حَفِظُوكَ وَمَنْعُوكَ» “Your people were better to you than mine to me, my people expelled me and wanted to kill me, whereas yours took care of you and protected you” (mentioned by Ibn Hajar in Al-Isabah).

3- As for one who was not capable, then Allah (swt) is forgiving, and he is not requested to do so due to his inability to emigrate, either due to sickness or being forced to stay, or due to weakness such as women, children and the like. The evidence is His (swt) words: ﴿إِلَّا الْمُسْتَضْعَفِينَ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ وَالنِّسَاءِ وَالْوِلْدَانِ لَا يَسْتَطِيعُونَ حِيلَةً وَلَا يَهْتَدُونَ سَبِيلًا﴾ “Except for the oppressed among men, women and children who cannot devise a plan nor are they directed to a way.” (An-Nisa’: 98).

4- As for one who is able to practice his Deen openly in his country, and implement the rules of the Shari’ah requested from him, and at the same time he possesses the capability to transform the Dar Al-Kufr he lives in into Dar Al-Islam – it is prohibited in such a situation for him to emigrate from Dar Al-Kufr to Dar Al-Islam, irrespective of whether he possessed the capability himself or by organising himself with the Muslims in his land, or through getting help from Muslims from outside of his land, or through cooperation with the Islamic State, or through any of the permitted means. It is obligatory upon him to work to change the Dar Al-Kufr into a Dar Al-Islam, and in such a situation it is prohibited for him to emigrate from there. The evidence for this is that the work to make his land join to Dar Al-Islam is obligatory, and so if he does not support it and he is capable to perform it and left behind the action of seeking it to join the Dar Al-Islam and instead emigrates, then he has committed a sin just like the neglect of any other obligation.

Based upon this, if there was a Dar Al-Islam, taking up permanent residence in Dar Al-Kufr is prohibited for the one who is obligated to emigrate...]

In conclusion the aforementioned Hadith is in the case of the existence of Dar Al-Islam, so it is obligatory to migrate from Dar Al-Kufr Dar Al-Islam according to the conditions set out above. But if there is no Dar Al-Islam (Khilafah (Caliphate)) as it is today, if a person can perform the rituals of his religion, pray and fast...etc., then it is not necessary to move from that land. But if he cannot perform the rituals of his religion, then he must move from it to another Dar Al-Kufr in which he will be able to perform the rituals of his religion.
