The French Government Boasts about Holding onto the Highest Values and Freedoms while Permitting Insults and Criminalizing Muslim Women for Dressing Modestly

On Wednesday 19th September, the French magazine "Charlie Hebdo" published perverse, offensive cartoons of Prophet Muhammad (saw). Last year, the magazine published insulting caricatures of the Messenger (saw) in an edition that it announced mockingly would be guest-edited by the Prophet (saw). Earlier this week, the women from the Ukrainian feminist group Femen celebrated the opening of their office in Paris by parading half-naked through a predominantly Muslim neighbourhood of the city, with phrases such as "No to Shariah" written over their bodies to express their opposition to Islam and their ignorant view of how it treats women. There was no intervention or arrests from the French authorities. All this has had full acceptance by the French government and legal system that enshrines the degenerate right to insult and express lewdness as part of its constitution. Indeed, French Prime Minister Jean-Marc Ayrault re-enforced this corrupt ideal in his response to Charlie Hebdo's cartoons of the Prophet (saw), when he stated, "we live in a country where freedom of expression is guaranteed, including the freedom to caricature." Femen-activists have gained notoriety for exposing their bodies in similar protests across the world but despite this, the French state has no qualms in giving the organization a license to open headquarters and operate in the country.

This is against a background of the continuing hijab ban in French schools that have stripped girls of a good education simply for expressing their virtuous religious beliefs as well as the niqab ban enforced within its society which has led to arrests and fines imposed upon women wearing the face-veil for the crime of modesty!

Dr. Nazreen Nawaz, Central Media Representative, Hizb ut-Tahrir commented, "What kind of morally bankrupt ideology celebrates the depraved right to defame, insult, and parade the streets naked, while condemning Muslim women for exemplifying the honourable ideal of modesty? This long historical tradition of secular extremism and fanatical liberalism that forms a fundamental principle of the French Republic is nothing to be proud of! It is not a mark of a civilized society but an immoral, disrespectful one that will never be able to secure the dignity of women, achieve harmony between its communities, nor be a model internationally for how to establish a healthy relationship between those of different faith."

"The freedom to vilify, demonise, or ridicule is not indicative of a mature society. It is symbolic of a flawed, immature ideology and system that is unable to distinguish between the right to debate and discuss ideas openly, express opposition to oppression, or account those in power - all integral to the health of any civilized society - from the childish bully-boy playground culture of insults and slander. These perverse representations of the Prophet (saw) are mirrored by the perverse logic of the secular liberal system which embraces the absurd belief that the defamation of the sacred entities and deeply held religious beliefs of people can generate a positive atmosphere of discussion of ideas. This blind worship of freedom of expression is not the means to progress; it is the recipe for chaos! It follows the same thread of secular irrationality that fails to recognize that all human beings have particular sensitivities, including religious ones which if not respected or protected leads to injustice, anger, and at times violence."

"Furthermore, the sheer hypocrisy of the French system that endorses the right of the Duchess of Cambridge to take legal action against a French magazine for printing indecent images that she views as a violation of her modesty, yet at the same time this hypocritical system strips Muslim women of their right to cover their head according to their views. Such entitlements clearly vanish when it becomes applicable to Islam and Muslims.

This blind worship of freedom of expression is not the means to progress;
it is the recipe for chaos!

"It is therefore shameful that Muslim governments, including those that have enjoyed the Arab Spring, are so eager to embrace the intellectually flawed, morally deficient secular liberal system when it is Islam and the Khilafah that represents the intellectually sound, morally elevated, and sublime ideals and values for humanity. It is a disgrace that they admire an ideology that celebrates insult, pornography and the devaluing of women under freedom of expression while turning their backs on a system that rejects such depraved values, a system that embodies virtue, praises modesty, and sanctifies women's dignity! O Muslim women, we call you to reject this corrupt secular liberal system and rush towards the ...Cont. on p. 36

The Ordeal in Syria Intensifies. The Rebels Remain Patient and Steadfast and are Determined to Establish the Rightly Guided Khilafah State

Although the regime of the coward Bashar has been badly burned and is waiting to be pronounced dead and buried, it still devastates besieged cities with its explosive fire. It commits all this criminality in full view of the world, because it knows the extent of enmity of the disbelieving West - led by America- towards this proud Muslim people.

Bashar want to take a comfortable retirement from his master in the White House, as a reward for destroying the country and trying to exhaust its rebel-ling people so that they accept any solution offered to them by America.

But it is out of the question that he, his master and all the Ummah's enemies get what they want from our faithful heroes, the blessed people of Al-Sham.

Whenever anguish and distress have befallen them due to the brutality of the regime and the conspiracies of the West, they took refuge in Allah.

They found that He (SWT) took care of their revolution and arranged for them both visible and invisible goodness beyond the expectation of any observer who pursued the revolution, from its start till today.

It is as if this revolution is the manifestation of Allah's (SWT) saying:

﴿وَقَدْ مَكَرُوا مَكْرَهُمْ وَعِنْدَ اللَّهِ مَكْرُهُمْ وَإِنْ كَانَ مَكْرُهُمْ لِتَزُولَ مِنْهُ الْجِبَالُ ﴿٤٦﴾ فَلَا تَحْسِبَنَّ اللَّهَ مُخْلِفَ وَعْدِهِ رُسُلَهُ إِنَّ اللَّهَ عَزِيزٌ ذُو انتِقَامٍ ﴿٤٧﴾﴾

“Indeed the unbelievers contrived their plots, but it is in Allah's power to nullify their plot, even though their plots were such that they would even move mountains. So do not think (O Prophet) that Allah would go back upon His promise to His Messengers. Surely Allah is Mighty, Lord of retribution.” [14: 46-47]

Yes, this revolution revived in the hearts of all Muslims, inside and outside Syria, the texts of the Holy Quran and the Noble Sunnah that talked about the permanent struggle between disbelief and Eeman: its nature, its direction, its intensity, its pains and its consequences; as well as the comfort and lessons.

So much so, that this struggle started with arrogance, rumours, killing, slaughter, torture and displacement of the Muslims by the disbelievers. But it will be concluded by victory, strengthening and establishment to them by Allah - as well as redress from their enemies.

Allah Ta'ala has told us of the conditions of the past clans such as people of Noah, 'Ad and Thamud, or the people of Pharaoh and the people of the pit ... which is similar to what we see today in Syria. He says:

﴿قَتَلَ أَصْحَابَ الْأَخْدُودِ النَّارَ ذَاتَ الْوَقُودِ إِذْ هُمْ عَلَيْهَا قُعُودٌ وَهُمْ عَلَى مَا يَفْعَلُونَ بِالْمُؤْمِنِينَ شُهُودٌ وَمَا نَقَمُوا مِنْهُمْ إِلَّا أَنْ يُؤْمِنُوا بِاللَّهِ الْعَزِيزِ الْحَمِيدِ﴾

“The people of the ditch were killed; with Fire abounding in fuel; while they sat around them; and were witnessing what they did to the believers. Against these they had no grudge except that they believed in Allah, the Most Mighty and Most Praiseworthy.” [85: 4-8]

And the Almighty said:

﴿أَلَمْ تَرَ كَيْفَ فَعَلَ رَبُّكَ بِعَادٍ إِرَمَ ذَاتِ الْعِمَادِ الَّتِي لَمْ يَخْلُقْ مِثْلَهَا فِي الْبِلَادِ وَثَمُودَ الَّذِينَ جَابُوا الصَّخْرَ بِالْوَادِ وَفِرْعَوْنَ ذِي الْأَوْتَادِ الَّذِينَ طَغَوْا فِي الْبِلَادِ فَأَكْثَرُوا فِيهَا الْفُسَادَ فَصَبَّ عَلَيْهِمْ رَبُّكَ سَوْطَ عَذَابٍ إِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَبَالْمُرْصَادِ﴾

Have you not seen how your Lord dealt with 'Ad; of Iram, known of their lofty columns; the like of whom no nation was ever created in the worlds. And how He dealt with Thamud who hewed out rocks in the valley? And with Pharaoh with pegs, who transgressed in the country; spreading in it much corruption? Then their Lord unloosed upon them the lash of torment. Truly your Lord is ever watchful. [89:6-14]

And the Almighty said:

﴿فَكَلَّا أَخَذْنَا بِذَنْبِهِ فَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَرْسَلْنَا عَلَيْهِمْ حَاصِبًا وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَخَذَتْهُ الصَّيْحَةُ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ خَسَفْنَا بِهِ الْأَرْضَ وَمِنْهُمْ مَنْ أَغْرَقْنَا وَمَا كَانَ اللَّهُ لِيُظْلِمَهُمْ وَلَكِنْ كَانُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ يَظْلِمُونَ﴾

“Each one of them We seized for his crime: We sent against some of them a violent tornado (with showers of stones); some were caught by a (mighty) Blast; some We caused the earth to swallow up; and some We drowned (in the waters: It was not Allah Who oppressed them. They rather wronged their own souls.” [29:40]

And the Almighty said:

﴿وَكَذَلِكَ نُرِيدُ أَنْ نَمُنَّ عَلَى الَّذِينَ اسْتَضَعُّوا فِي الْأَرْضِ وَنَجْعَلَهُمْ أَئِمَّةً وَنَجْعَلَهُمُ الْوَارِثِينَ وَنَمَكِّنَ لَهُمْ فِي الْأَرْضِ وَنُرِي فِرْعَوْنَ وَهَامَانَ وَجُنُودَهُمَا مَا كَانُوا يَحْذَرُونَ﴾

“And We wished to be Gracious to those who were being depressed in the land, to make them leaders and make them heirs, to establish a firm place for them in the land, and to show Pharaoh, Haman, and their hosts, at their hands, the very things against which they were taking precautions.” [28: 5-6]

And this applies to Bashar, those with him and their like.

The Prophet (peace be upon him) told us also of the ahadeeth that reveal the nature of the conflict and the intensity of the confrontation and the good consequence. It is narrated from Khabab bin Aratt, may Allah be pleased with him, he said:

شكونا إلى رسول الله صلى الله عليه وسلم وهو يومئذ متوسد بردة في ظل الكعبة، فقلنا: ألا تستنصر لنا؟ ألا تدعونا؟ فقال: "قد كان الرجل فيمن كان قبلكم يؤخذ فيحفر له في الأرض، فيجاء بالمنشار على رأسه فيجعل بنصفين فما يصده ذلك عن دينه، ويمشط بأمشاط الحديد ما دون عظمه من لحم وعصب فما يصده ذلك، والله ليتمن الله عز وجل هذا الأمر حتى يسير الراكب من صنعاء إلى حضرموت لا يخاف إلا الله تعالى، والذئب على غنمه، ولكنكم تستعجلون."

"We complained to the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, while he was laying his head on a garment (Burdah) under the shadow of Ka'bah. We said: Don't you ask (Allah) for our assistance? Don't you pray for us? He (SAW) said: The person from peoples before you used to be taken and a pit is dug for him in the ground; a chain saw used to be put on his head making him two halves, but this would not make him abandon his deen; and whatever beyond his bones of flesh and nerves used to be combed with iron combs; yet this would not divert him (from his deen). By Allah, He The Almighty will complete this matter (Islam) till the passenger would travel from San'aa to Hadramout, fearing nobody except Allah Ta'ala and the wolf for his sheep; but you are impatient." [narrated by Ahmad].

The Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him, said to his companions:

"كونوا كحواريي عيسى بن مريم، رفعوا على الخشب وسمروا بالمسامير وطبخوا في القدور، وقطعت أيديهم وأرجلهم وسُمِّرت أعينهم، فكان ذلك البلاء والقتل في طاعة الله أحب إليهم من الحياة في معصية الله"

"Be like the disciples of 'Eisa (Jesus) son of Mary: They were, raised on wood, fixed with nails, cooked in pots, and their hands and feet cut off and their eyes punched with nails; yet that scourge and murder in obedience to Allah was dearer to them from life in disobedience to Allah."

Thus the condition of Muslims in Syria is like the condition of their predecessors of the people of faith. And the condition of their Pharaoh is like the condition of the Pharaohs of that time. However, the Way (sunnah) of Allah that will be realized is "the good end will be for the righteous."

Dear free Muslim rebels!

The huge sacrifices you have made and still make are little compared to a victory by which Islam and its people will be honoured, and by which disbelief and its people will be disgraced. Spending oneself and one's wealth is also little compared to the valuable commodity of Allah, Paradise (Jannah). The victory of Islam and Muslims and their formidable fortress are realised in the establishment of the Islamic Khilafah State. It is the decree of our Lord, the source of our might and the conqueror of our enemy. Within it government is carried out with Truth and justice, and under its shadow people would live a decent life, and the highest ranks of humanity are achieved.

Everything is trivial compared to its establishment.

Contrast that is what our enemies call for, namely a Civil State, democracy and secularism, that are indeed destruction and misery, which are not equivalent in the Sight of Allah to the fingernail of any child killed by this offensive regime.

O Muslims, be patient over what has befallen you; and do not let the severity of adversities distract you from the goal you announced: "We will never bow to other than Allah". Indeed arbitration to other than the law (Shar') of Allah is bowing (rukoo') to other than Allah. Allah would not be pleased with being disputed or shared in ruling (hukm) by anybody. Allah Ta'ala says:

﴿إِنَّ الْحُكْمَ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ، أَمَرَ أَلَّا تَعْبُدُوا إِلَّا إِيَّاهُ، ذَلِكَ الدِّينُ الْقَيِّمُ، وَلَكِن أَكْثَرُ النَّاسِ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ﴾

"The command 'hukm' is for none but Allah. He has commanded that you worship none but Him: that is the right religion, but most men understand not."[12: 40]

O Muslims in Al-Sham of goodness!

Allah, the Almighty wanted to honour you and take from you martyrs. You have good news (bisharat) in the ahadeeth in which the Prophet, peace be upon him, bestowed special honours upon the people of Al-Sham. They are great good news: The first is the words of the Messenger of Allah, peace be upon him:

“عقر دار الإسلام بالشام”

"The centre abode of Islam is in Al-Sham." In this hadeeth much of the support and help of Allah are to the people of Al-Sham, and His defeat to their enemies. The second good news is his saying, peace be upon him:

“تُمْ تَكُونُ خِلَافَةً عَلَىٰ مِثْلِهَا جِئْتُمْ بِالنَّبِيِّ...”

"...and then it be Khilafah on the way of prophethood." Whoever examines the reality of what is going on in Syria today sees that the situation is heading towards the establishment of the promised second rightly guided Khilafah, Allah willing?

These pieces of good news will be followed automatically by third good news of the Prophet (SAW), which is his saying:

“تَقَاتِلُكُمْ يَهُودٌ فَتَقْتُلُونَهُمْ”

"Jews will fight against you and you will kill them." There is reference in this hadeeth to the elimination of the oppressive rule (hukm jabri) that established the Jews, protected them and prevented any ...Cont. on p. 35

Only Our Khilafah Will Avenge RasulAllah As He has a Right to be Avenged

On 11 September 2012, anti-American marches and protests erupted throughout the Muslim world, from Morocco to Bangladesh, from Egypt to Iraq, to avenge the insult of RasulAllah (saw) in an American movie, with the Muslims of Yemen proclaiming "Our lives be sacrificed for you O RasulAllah."

As for the rulers of the Muslim World, who collectively command almost sixty million troops and have the vast resources of this Ummah, what was their response? Caught between two fires, the fire of blind slavery to America and the fire of Muslim anger against American arrogance and brutality, they adopted their usual weak kneed and gutless response. They abandoned the Muslims as they abandon the Muslims on every vital issue, whether it is securing the deen, the wealth, the lands or the lives of the Muslims.

As for the rulers of Pakistan, even though they command the world's seventh largest armed forces, experienced, brave and armed with nuclear weapons, what was their response? On 12 September 2012, Pakistan's foreign office spoke weak words when strong deeds were required to heal the hearts of the believers, declaring, "The government of Pakistan strongly condemns the airing of a defamatory video clip in the US maligning the revered and pious and pious personality of Prophet Muhammad PBUH." And the next day on 13 September, when Kayani summoned the heads of the Pakistan Army in the 153rd Corps Commanders meeting, this matter was not even of the agenda!

O Muslims of Pakistan!

RasulAllah (saw) Mercy to all Humankind, Master of all Prophets, said,

”إِذَا لَمْ تَسْتَخِيْ فَاصْنَعْ مَا شِئْتَ“

"If you have no shame then do what you wish." (Bukhari).

These rulers do not feel what we feel, they do not hold what we hold, they care not for what we care about. Their hearts and minds are one with our enemies, to expect any good from them is self-delusion. They move only to secure the interests of the kuffar and if we were to demand our right, they would only seek to calm our rage so that we do not disturb their masters.

They use our resources against us by allying with our enemies day and night but will not lift a finger to avenge our beloved Muhammad (saw). It is not the first time that these traitor rulers have horribly neglected their duty when the West, with America at its head, has attacked our noble RasulAllah. It is not the first time either that they have neglected their duty towards protecting other sanctities within Islam, such as the lives of Muslims. Indeed, even now America and the West are behind those who slaughter the women, children and elderly in Syria, just as they are behind the thugs in Iraq and Afghanistan. This is the real meaning of "peace" and "security" for these agent rulers. It is the shedding of Muslim blood in rivers so that the kuffar can establish "security" for their hegemony, with the rulers granting them "peace" by preventing any challenge to their hegemony. Evil are their deeds even though RasulAllah said,

“وَالَّذِي نَفْسِي بِيَدِهِ لَقَتْلُ مُؤْمِنٍ أَكْبَرُ عِنْدِي”

We will never see our RasulAllah (saw) avenged as he deserves to be avenged until we see the return of our Khilafah.

"By the One in Whose Hand my soul lies, the killing of a single believer is greater to Allah on the Day of Judgment than the destruction of the entire world" [An-Nasaa'i].

We will never see our RasulAllah (saw) avenged as he deserves to be avenged until we see the return of our Khilafah. Remember that even in the weakest period of our Khilafah the Uthmani Khilafah, it announced war against Britain and France, the major world powers at the time, for similar defamation. Voltaire's "Mahomet ou le fanatisme?" was staged as a play in Europe, defaming RasulAllah (saw). The Khaleefah, Abdul Hameed II, summoned the French ambassador and kept him waiting for hours. He then emerged in full battle dress, drew out his sword from its scabbard and placed it with its point towards the French ambassador as a declaration of war. Then without saying a single word and he sent him away. And when Britain displayed arrogance, he spoke in a language they would understand, threatening them with war by the entire Ummah. Accordingly, Britain and France abandoned their mischief.

We will never see our RasulAllah (saw) avenged as he deserves to be avenged until you have a righteous Khaleefah, ruling by Islam, as a commander for the armed forces. Only the Khaleefah will mobilize our armed forces to end all the American bases, consulates and embassies, expel all American intelligence, diplomatic and military officials and close the air and land supply lines to the American crusaders in Afghanistan. RasulAllah (saw) said, “وَأِنَّمَا الْإِمَامُ جُنَّةٌ يُقَاتِلُ مِنْ وَرَائِهِ وَيُتَّقَى بِهِ” The Imam is a shield, fighting is under his leadership and protection is by him."

We will never see our RasulAllah (saw) avenged as he deserves to be avenged until we establish this Khilafah. It is upon us all to work with Hizb ut-Tahrir and stand with it in its call to the armed forces to depose Kayani, Zardari and the other traitors within the military and political leadership and establish the Khilafah in their place.

O officers of Pakistan's armed forces!

Does it not make your blood boil that Kayani and the other traitors command you to lay your lives to save America's crusade and its occupation of Afghanistan, yet they do not command you to avenge RasulAllah (saw)? Is the pledge you took before Allah (swt) to protect us, our deen and our lands, only so that you can be protectors of America and her agents in this country? Know that there would be no need for us to protest and march over the American degradation of our RasulAllah (saw) were you to respond to our call and end the American Raj by the Khilafah. Know that all that stands between the Ummah and delivering the appropriate blow to American arrogance are handfuls of traitors within the military and political leadership. It is upon you to remove these American slaves within hours and establish the Khilafah in their place by pledging the Nussrah to Hizb ut-Tahrir. Only then will you be led into battle by a Khaleefah who will implement Islam and protect it, unify the Muslims from Syria to Indonesia, Iran to Central Asia as the single most resourceful state in the world and raise the word of Allah as the highest.

Hizb ut-Tahrir calls for your response for the sake of Allah (swt) and His Messenger (saw) so when will you respond?

”يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا اسْتَجِيبُوا لِلَّهِ وَلِلرَّسُولِ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ لِمَا يُحْيِيكُمْ وَاعْلَمُوا أَنَّ اللَّهَ يَحُولُ بَيْنَ الْمَرْءِ وَقَلْبِهِ وَأَنَّهُ إِلَيْهِ تُحْشَرُونَ“

"O you who believe! Answer Allah and (His) Messenger when he (the Messenger) calls you to that which will give you life, and know that Allah comes between a person and his heart. And verily to Him you shall (all) be gathered.)" [Surah Al-Anfal 8:24]□

Press Release

The Tour of Syria during the Revolution by Head of the Media Office of the Hizb-ut Tahrir / Wilayah of Syria

During his recent tour of Syria, Engineer: Hisham Al-Baba, the head of the Media Office of the Hizb-ut Tahrir, Wilaya of Syria, met with the revolution activists in several regions, with the Hizb-ut Tahrir's members and with the supporters of the establishment of the Khilafah and the return of the Islamic State after imminent overthrowing of the tyrant of Al-Sham, Allah willing. He delivered a speech at the mosque of 'Ansaar ur-Rasool' (the supporters of the Prophet, peace be upon him) in I'zaaz. He greeted the audience, welcomed their meeting and thanked them for their good reception in the pure land of Al-Sham, the land of courage and valor. He applauded the bravery of the people rebelling in Al-Sham. He also conveyed to them the greetings of the venerable scholar, 'Ataa Abu Rashtah, Ameer of the Hizb-ut Tahrir, May Allah protect him.

He spoke after that about the activities of the Hizb-ut Tahrir at home and abroad in support of the Syrian revolution. He prayed that Allah crowns the enormous sacrifices and the pure blood of the martyrs that have watered the soil of the land of Al-Sham with a second rightly guided Khilafah on the model of prophethood, Allah willing. He stressed that what is happening in Syria is a frantic struggle between the Truth and Falsehood, at a time where the West and the East have plotted against the revolution of Syria for fear of its Islamic patronage that proceeds steadily towards the Islamic Khilafah State. He explained the conspiracy of the media against the Syrian revolution because of this trend.

He pointed out that the rebelling people of Al-Sham will not be content simply with the liberation of Syria from the ruling of the tyrant and the rules of disbelief (kufr); rather Palestine would be their next destination, Allah willing. They will not be satisfied with less than its liberation and its return as an Islamic Wilaya as it was before. This would return the land of Al-Sham to one state, and as a part of the coming Khilafah State, Allah willing, which will be the leading state in the world within a decade. He also pointed to the roadmap issued by the Hizb-ut Tahrir, Wilayah of Syria, on 28 Ramadan

1433 AH to bring about the change in Syria that leads to the Khilafah State, titled: "The Manifesto of the Hizb-ut Tahrir about the Revolution of Al-Sham: Towards the Birth of a Second Rightly Guided Khilafah."

The brother, head of the Media Office also delivered in the subsequent days a lecture, publicized, entitled: "The Revolution of Al-Sham: Sacrifices and Challenges, Legendry Patience and an International Conspiracy - the last of which is Lakhdar Brahimi" in the area of Soran in Aleppo countryside, where the lecture had wonderful positive echoes, and good interaction from the attendance. It was interspersed with aware questions from the youth, yearning for the rule of Islam. The lecture was followed by the distribution of the draft Constitution of the Khilafah State and the statement about the conspiracy of Lakhdar Brahimi among the audience who commended this lecture and demanded repeat and more frequent visits.

Hisham Al-Baba pointed out in the lecture the huge sacrifices the Syrian people made. He said that it would be forbidden - after these sacrifices, the blood of the martyrs, the devastated economy, the suffering of the children, the groans of the bereaved, tens of thousands of detainees and hundreds of thousands of tortured and displaced all over the world. Yes, it would be haram after all of that for the people to accept a superficial change of face, after more than fifty thousand martyrs. It would be haram after all of this for people to accept less than the Islamic State that revenges from every one that fought against Allah and hurt His loyal servants. He pointed also to the gravity of the internal and external challenges facing our proud rebelling people, of international and regional conspiracy, and the frantic attempts to circumvent the revolution and promoting agents of the kind of the regime to dominate the people after the transitional phase and the political solution that they promote.

In conclusion he addressed our rebelling people on the land of Al-Sham saying: "Be steadfast and vie in steadfastness; for indeed victory is only the patience of an hour. For the sake of supporting this deen you are paying the tax of struggle on behalf of the whole Ummah. We encourage you and invite you to take a lesson from the previous revolutions, so that you do not fall in the trap of a civil secular state as they did. Beware of the deception of the West and its local tools. We invite you to combine your efforts with ours to overthrow the tyrant of Al-Sham so that we enjoy Allah's victory. Our appointment is near in Damascus in the Umayyad Mosque, Allah willing, to give a pledge of allegiance to the Imam so as to govern us with the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger; and indeed that is not a great matter for Allah."

The joy was enormous during the tour and these meetings. Many saw in them good signs of victory looming in the land of Al-Sham. ...Cont. on p. 35

Anti-Islam Agenda of Media and Politicians Accountable for Violence

In light of recent events and in response to media and political commentary about these events generally and about Hizb ut-Tahrir specifically, we emphasise for the public record the following:

1. We condemn, in the strongest of terms, insults to the Prophet (pbuh). The honour of the Prophet is a red line for Muslims. Insults of him will not be tolerated. Muslims should respond, loudly and strongly, through intellectual and political means. We reject justifications of insulting Islam and its sanctities in the name of freedom of speech.
2. The US Ambassador to Australia, Jeffrey Bleich, claims that his 'homeland' has been unfairly targeted by 'Muslim extremism' in the wake of the film. Australian officials too have expressed surprise at why the United States is the target of Muslim anger. We remind him and them that the US administration has a long record of exploitative interference in the Muslim World. From drone strikes in Pakistan, to soldiers burning copies of the Quran in Afghanistan, to torture by rendition, to Guantanamo Bay, Abu Ghraib, and Baghram airbase. The list is as long as it is ugly. So do not feign surprise. Further, Hillary Clinton justified the film in the name of freedom of expression, refusing to ask YouTube to take it down, whilst US authorities have asked for online material to be taken down in the past.
3. The large-scale and praiseworthy reaction from Muslims globally to the insulting film is not about the film alone. The film is merely a trigger and the latest manifestation of a persistent Western attack against Islam and Muslims. An attack defined by the likes of the unjust and savage invasions of Iraq and Afghanistan, the Danish Cartoons, decades of Western support for dictators in the Muslims, decades of economic and political subjugation of Muslim lands, and decades of preventing the Muslim World from assuming its own political destiny.
4. With respect to the protest in Sydney on Saturday 15/09/12, Hizb ut-Tahrir Australia had nothing to do with its organisation or execution. We do not condone violent protest. However, we affirm that primary responsibility for what occurred lies squarely on the powerful institutions of society - media and the political establishment in particular - which continually attack Islam and Muslims, creating the grievances that give rise to such incidents, isolating youth, and causing social tension.

5. Hizb ut-Tahrir is well-known globally as a non-violent political party. We have a sixty-year record of channelling the real grievances of Muslims all around the world into positive political activism to the end of removing Western-backed dictators in the Muslim World and replacing them with the Islamic Caliphate - representative, accountable governance on the basis of Islam which is independent of foreign powers.

6. Comments about Hizb ut-Tahrir and its media representative from Britain, Taji Mustafa, by the likes of Tony Abbott, Julie Bishop, Scott Morrison and Cory Bernardi are entirely baseless. This is the usual crowd of political opportunists who only reveal their hatred of Islam by continually attacking all things Islamic as they appeal to the Islamophobic fringe of their electorates. They lecture Muslims about the virtues of non-violence whilst supporting the most violent and inhumane foreign policies targeting Muslim lands abroad, such as in Afghanistan.

7. Statements by Government officials have been equally hypocritical. Foreign Minister Bob Carr accused the protesters of provoking a 'clash of civilisations'. Prime Minister Julia Gillard postured disgust at the violence. Here we have politicians who have sent fighter-jets, tanks and armed troops thousands of miles away to kill, maim and destroy in Afghanistan, posturing disgust about violence at a protest in Sydney that pales in comparison. How can such remarks be taken seriously?

8. It is of note that on the same night as the protests in Sydney, there a very similar incident on the streets of Perth, albeit for very different reasons. 500 teenage party-goers in Piara Waters, gathering in response to a party advertised on social media, went out of control. They hurled rocks, bottles and bricks at police. Reinforcements including mounted police, the dog squad and police helicopter were summoned in an attempt to disperse the crowd. A 19-year-old was stabbed and an ambulance window smashed. This incident evidently quite similar, if not worse, than the Sydney protests as far as objective facts go - received nowhere near as much media coverage. They were not dubbed the 'Perth riots'. Politicians did not fall over one another to condemn the violence. Federal Parliament did not see a need to raise the issue and forward bipartisan condemnation. Parents and community leaders in the area were not asked to condemn the behaviour, nor did they themselves go out of their way to condemn the violence.

In this there are great lessons for those of insight in the Muslim community and the wider society. It is a clear illustration that the major issue with events in Sydney is not the violence, but the anti-Islamic agenda peddled by media and politicians. In turn we advise all in the Muslim com- ...Cont. on p. 37

The Hasina Government Abducts Professor Dr Syed Golam Mawla Flouting the Rule of Law which She Claims to Uphold

The Hasina government abducted senior member of Hizb ut-Tahrir, Professor Dr Syed Golam Mawla from Kashimpur jail gate on the evening of 19 September (2012), after his release from the jail. Dr Golam Mawla has not been presented before a court till now. Earlier that day (19-09-2012) the Supreme Court had dismissed the government's petition to stay his bail granted by the High Court. The Supreme Court refused the government's claim that the activities of Hizb ut-Tahrir fall under the so-called Anti-Terror law. The verdict of the Supreme Court did not please the government and so it decided to disobey it. This is the very court whose verdict the government is eager to implement when it suits them such as the verdict on caretaker government. Furthermore Sheikh Hasina punished her father's killers in a vengeful manner claiming that it was a great example of upholding the rule of law by herself and her government, yet this is the same rule of law which she is flouting now. This only demonstrates the hypocrisy and double standards of the ruling regime and the democratic system.

Hizb ut-Tahrir strongly condemns the Hasina government's actions and we assure her that with Allah's Will and Help, we will continue our struggle in the way of Allah (SWT), gain the Nusrat, establish the Khilafah and take appropriate measures against herself, her henchmen and everyone responsible for the injustice done to the sincere Daw'ah carriers. □

Obama's Speech at UN is a Slap in the Faces of Those Who are Encouraging People to Look towards UN Muslim's will Never Accept Freedom of Expression and the Slandering of their Beloved Prophet (s.a.w)

Obama's speech at United Nations is a slap in the faces of those people who are giving a pathetic and useless advice to use United Nations' forum in order to resolve the issue of slandering of our beloved Prophet (s.a.w). Obama in his speech made it very clear that according to American constitution protection of freedom of speech is very sacred and important for him and he can not ban this slandering movie. Rather he advised Muslims that they should embrace the Kufar thought of Freedom of expression and should not get angry over the slandering of their Prophet (s.a.w).

Hizb ut-Tahrir wants to make it clear to Obama that unashamed and traitor Muslim rulers have already accepted his advice for quite some time that is why even at this moment Muslim rulers, whether it is Zardari or Muhammad Mursi, are meeting Western leaders with joy and pleasure, who are giving full protection to slanderers. But Muslim's will never accept this Kufar western civilization, a civilization which declares slandering of a man who is the best among the whole man kind as freedom of expression.

Hizb ut-Tahrir also makes it clear to Obama that if he will not spare any means to catch the killers of American ambassador to Libya, Muslims will also never accept nor ignore the slandering of Muhammad (s.a.w) and the people who did this disgusting, sickening evil act. Condemnation from America over this film is just to provide an excuse to shameless Muslim leaders so that they could use it to calm the anger of the Ummah and at the same time America is so arrogant that she is saying that providing extra security personnel is not enough rather this wave of protest should be stopped immediately.

It is very ironical that America at one hand demanding from Muslims to embrace freedom of expression but at the same time she is not willing to give Muslims the right of expressing their views and anger over the slandering of their Prophet (s.a.w). Obama said that in today's world there is no room for violence and killing but satirically the past and present of America and west is filled with the blood of million of innocent people who ...Cont. on p. 37

Vaguely Phrasing the Constitution without Specifying the Islamic Ruling Regarding Each Article Does Not Change the Secular Nature of the Planned Egyptian Constitution

Following the decision of the constitutional drafting committee (The Constituent Assembly entrusted with drafting a new constitution for the country) to add in Article (36) to the new Egyptian constitution which states, "The state is committed to taking all constitutional and executive measures to ensure equality of women with men in all walks of political, cultural, economic and social life, without contradicting the rules of Islamic Law. The state will provide all necessary mothers and children services, healthcare and the right to inheritance and will ensure a balance between the woman's family responsibilities and her work in the society). In light of the above, a statement expressing grave concerns regarding this article was issued by one hundred judicial parties and organisations. They considered article (36) a violation of the rights of women enshrined in international covenants through restricting the concept of equality by the rules of Shariah.

The women's section of the Media Office of Hizb ut-Tahrir commented in response to the constitutional drafting committee and the secular organizations in Egypt with the following:

Firstly: The Constituent Assembly has previously declared that it will draft a constitution which is taken from the previous constitutions of Egypt as well as constitutions of other countries, such as Switzerland, Germany and South Africa. Thus the foundations upon which this constitution is established is other than Islam, this makes it an un-Islamic constitution, in fact it is a secular constitution, Allah (SWT) says:

﴿أَفَمَن أَسَّسَ بُنْيَانَهُ عَلَىٰ تَقْوَىٰ مِنَ اللَّهِ وَرِضْوَانٍ خَيْرٍ أَمْ مَن أَسَّسَ بُنْيَانَهُ عَلَىٰ شِقَا جُرْفٍ هَارٍ فَانْهَارَ بِهِ فِي نَارِ جَهَنَّمَ وَاللَّهُ لَا يَهْدِي الْقَوْمَ الظَّالِمِينَ﴾

"Then is one who laid the foundation of his building on righteousness [with fear] from Allah and [seeking] His approval better or one who laid the foundation of his building on the edge of a bank about to collapse, so it collapsed with him into the fire of Hell? And Allah does not guide the wrongdoing people.” [TMQ 9:109]

Secondly: Article (36) has no link with Islam and the phrase (without contradicting the rules of Islamic Law) was intrusively crammed into the constitution. The article addresses equality between women and men, which is a western concept. Equality between men and women is not an issue to be debated in Muslim societies because the equality of women to men or vice versa has no bearing on the social life; it is not even a potential problem in the Islamic way of life. No Muslim calls for this except as an imitation to the west, where the natural rights of women as a human being were abused, thereby Western women had to struggle to attain these rights and have taken the call to equality as the route to these rights. Islam on the other hand has no link to this malignant concept (equality).

Thirdly: Essentially, vague general phrases were drafted in the new Egyptian constitution by a committee which can only envisage the constitution to be secular and in line with the Western life style. Following that, some secular organisations which hate Islam, with the backing of America - the main player in the Egyptian arena - raised the issue of the Islamization of the new constitution on the pretext of the insertion of the above mentioned phrase. All this is a manoeuvre aimed at misleading the people into thinking that the new constitution contains Islamic phrases even if they are vague and general such as (without contradicting the rules of Islamic Law), therefore, presenting it to be more Islamic than the constitution of the former dictator. This might lead the naive into thinking that the constitution has become Islamic and distract the sincere people in Egypt who are eagerly awaiting the Islamic rule from working to demand that implementation of Shariah and settle with the beat of fancy phrases while the secular, republican civil rule continues.

The Islamic constitution is that which is purely taken from non-other than the rules of Islam to be implemented by the Islamic Khilafah which is retuning soon by the will of Allah (SWT). The Khilafah will protect the rights and dignity of women within the framework of a Social System designed by Allah the Knowing and Acquainted to ensure the cohesion and advancement of the community.

Hizb ut-Tahrir has a draft constitution which it offers to the Ummah and has outlined in it the evidences for each one of the articles. It is a pure Islamic constitution with Islamic rules that demonstrate the practical implementation of Islam on the state and society. □

Question and Answer: Tensions between China and Japan

Question: U.S. Defense Secretary during his visit to Japan on 16-17/9/2012 said that "this dispute between China and Japan on the subject of the islands can intensify" (A.P. News Agency 17/9/2012) and then added "I am worried because when these countries start provoking one another on these disputed islands, it would enhance the possibility of making the wrong decision from one side or the other, which on its part could lead to violence and result in conflict" (the above source). The current development came to the fore in the wake of the announcement made by Japan on 11/9/2012 that she bought the three islands from a Japanese family in an archipelago of the East China Sea, thus she claims their ownership and calls them Senkaku. This scenario triggered tension between them and China who claims that these islands belong to them and she calls them Diaoyu. China sent two warships towards these islands...

So the question is: why did Japan take this step at this juncture? Does America have a role in this conflict? Is it possible that the situation will drive them to the outbreak of war or is it a storm which will calm down?

will calm down?

Answer to the question is clarified by reviewing the following matters:

1. China claims that these three islands are from among the five main islands owned by her and were captured by Japan in the war that took place between them during 1894 and 1895. The Americans took control of them in World War II after they defeated the Japanese. They (Americans) annexed the administration of these islands to the Japanese island of Oukinao which they also occupied in the same war and established therein a large U.S. base. The America, however, handed over these islands to the Japanese in 1972 by handing over them to a Japanese family and then these islands were bought by another Japanese family who were controlling them since the nineties of the nineteenth century. The area of all these islands in the archipelago is about 6.2 km, including the rocks surrounded by the sea water. These islands are uninhabited but they are of strategic importance in the East China Sea. They are close to the routes of maritime navigation and their waters are replete with fish wealth. Also there are reports about the possibility that they may have large reserves of oil and gas.

The issue of these islands has been raised between the two countries several times, the last of which was in the year 2010 when a similar tension arose.

2. The United States officially informed Japan on 29/06/2012 that they want to deploy "12" Osprey aircrafts in the U.S. Futenma base in the Japanese island of Oukinao and that the deployment of these aircrafts will be at the end of the ongoing month (ASHA - Musrs - scene - masress al-mashhad 1.7.2012) and U.S. forces announced that one of these aircrafts will begin its trip on 21/9/2012 (Arabic News CN World 20.9.2012). All this came in an atmosphere witnessing Japanese protests against the American presence, which was started to be looked at unpleasantly, with some of them even demanding the departure of the Americans from their country as there are still 47 thousand U.S. troops by virtue of a bilateral security treaty signed in 1960 with the Government of Japan under the U.S. occupation. This is an American method which she has resorted to in order to change the form of her occupation and keep her influence in the country occupied by her as she did in Iraq when she held the U.S. security treaty with the Maliki government in 2008 under American official occupation as well as the American strategic security agreement with the Government of Afghanistan, which was signed a few month ago under the patronage of ongoing American occupation.

In such atmosphere of Japanese dissatisfaction with the largely American presence in their country, America announces the deployment of aircrafts!

Of course, such announcement will intensify the opposition by the Japanese... So America deemed it appropriate that creating an atmosphere of provocation with China and manifestation, that the war with China is approaching, will make the Japanese accept the deployment of these aircrafts and will mitigate their protests against the American presence, on the pretext that the U.S. will support Japan in the face of China! That's why and in agreement with the Japanese government closely related to U.S. policy was raised the issue of the islands that they belong to Japan while they are disputed between the two. This scenario provoked China and created an atmosphere of misleading clash with her and that the war may erupt. And this is what pacified the Japanese opposition to the American presence in their country considering that they would lend a helping hand to them in the face of China.

3. Therefore, raising the issue of the islands this time, after the announcement to deploy the aircrafts, is a deliberate step by the Government of Japan based on the U.S. plan to provoke the Chinese until the tension between Japan and China becomes apparent so that the Japanese are terrified by China and surrender to the American plans to be implemented in their region. Therefore the statements by U.S. officials indicate the forthcoming confrontation or that they are prelude to confrontation! U.S. Defense Secretary during his visit to Japan said on 16-17/9/2012 "this dispute between the two can intensify fy" (A.P. News Agency 17/9/2012) and then added "I am worried because when these countries start provoking one another on these disputed islands, it would enhance the possibility of making the wrong decision from one side or the other, which on its part could lead to violence and result in conflict" (the above source). He called on "the two sides to equanimity and self-control". U.S. Defense Secretary describes the issue as if a war is about to occur between the two countries for the sake of the American goals. He reminded Japan of the security pacts between his country and Japan to show that America is ready to stand by Japan and said "we honor our commitments related to the treaties existing for a long time and will not change" (the above source). All these escalations are happening at a time when the US Defense Secretary is focusing in his talks with the Japanese government on the US Plans to deploy 12 Osprey aircrafts in the U.S. base in the Japanese island of Oukinao amid strong opposition from the residents of the South Island as reported French News Agency on 16/9/2012.

4. The Chinese reaction was emotional and the mass demonstration were allowed to roam through the streets of her cities to protest against the Japanese step towards these islands that are officially not controlled by the Japanese state. But when it announced the purchase of three of them from the Japanese family to be owned by the Japanese state, the sovereignty of these islands officially came under the Japanese state and it was considered as if these islands were again annexed by Japan. This Japanese action provoked China who moved some of her ships that guard her territorial waters in the East China Sea toward these islands. The Prime Minister of China Wen Jiabao being impressed and touched by the Chinese emotions said: "the era of humiliating the Chinese has gone irrevocably" (A.P. News Agency 17/9/2012). The Chinese still remember the humiliation that they suffered from at the hands of the Japanese, whether it is in the war that broke out between them in the nineties of the nineteenth century or it is the direct Japanese occupation of China in the thirties of the twentieth century which lasted until Japan's defeat in World War II by America. So they went out of Chinese control and then were left for Americans. The complication of defeat and humiliation that afflicted the Chinese at the hands of the Japanese is still a factor of provocation among them. So the Chinese getting agitated by such an issue is very easy.

5. Thus, America hit two birds with one stone by pushing Japan to claim the islands... on the one hand the atmosphere became strained between China and Japan so that Japan feel compelled to have the American presence, which can be easily acceptable to the Japanese. On the other hand, America wants to keep China always busy with tense regional issues, thus preventing China from any aspirations towards any global state policy except within the limits of its territory. America continues in her plans aimed at restraining China and putting an end to China's plans to strengthen its regional position in order to reach the global status, particularly towards America. Thus, the U.S. plan in the regional areas of China is to achieve this goal. America has already announced her plans to strengthen her presence in Asia/ Pacific Ocean as part of a new strategy when her defense secretary Leon Panetta announced on 01/06/2012 this strategy of his country in Asia/ Pacific Ocean regarding sending six aircrafts carriers and deploying 60% of its warships in this region over the coming years until 2020. Thus America is working towards igniting all the conflicts in the face of China: in the region of the East China Sea as happened with Japan and in the South China Sea as there is tension between China and the Philippines over the islands and the fishing, and also there is dispute between China and Vietnam over the islands where the Chinese stood up and expelled the Vietnamese in 1988. All this is aroused to keep China busy in these two regions!

America also stands behind these countries in the two regions with the exception of North Korea, and incites them against China so that the latter, as we said above, is made busy in her own region and cannot be in a position to go beyond this territory, especially in view of the fact that America has full control over many of these countries such as South Korea in the East China Sea, the Philippines in the South China Sea, where there are U.S. bases as well as Indonesia subordinate to U.S. policy and then Japan which is also in the American orbit.

6. This is the reality about America's role in this matter and triggering the issue of the islands at this time. As for the question that this provocation will reach to the outbreak of war between China and Japan over the islands, it is unlikely at least in the foreseeable future because there are islands larger and more important than these such as the island of Taiwan, formerly known as Formosa and for which China did not ignite a war considering that America is agreed with her that she would work to peacefully bring them back to China. Then there is a conflict with the Philippines, Vietnam and others on islands located in the South China Sea, without getting into war with them. Otherwise, she will open upon herself a door which she cannot close! China will never sacrifice its large interests with Japan because of these islands, for the reason that the volume of trade between them is about $ 300 billion a year and the Japanese companies operating in China employ more than 20 million Chinese workers. In addition, China is working to take advantage of Japanese technology and expertise and therefore it is not in China's interest to ignite a war with Japan for these islands. The Chinese Defense Minister Liang Gwaungla said in his meeting with U.S. Defense Secretary on 18/9/2012 while answering to a question by the journalists as to whether Beijing intends to resort to force, he said that "we still hope to have a peaceful and negotiated solution", (A.P. News Agency 18/9/2012) which indicates that it is unlikely on the part of China to ignite a war with Japan for these islands.

7. If China remains preoccupied with her territorial issues, America could succeed in expelling China from international politics. However it is true that China is effectively threatening the U.S. policy worldwide and creates problems to her, which threaten the latter's interests i.e. China applies the policy of effective threat to the U.S. policy in every region of the world and therefore it is easy for China to have effective influence in her regional domain, especially in the two regions of East and South China Sea.

However, the noticeable prospects in the Chinese policy are that it is still misled by the notion that her effective interference in the international politics is not in her best interest and so she only takes care of her regional areas... and is not aware of the fact that she will never be able to control her regions if she does not have global political aspirations of creating problems for America in order to compel the latter to lessen the harassment of China in its territory. Unless China pursues this policy, she will remain at a standstill and America will continue to create regional tension for her one after the other.

After all, perhaps the history is repeating itself wholly or partially! The Khilaafah, Allah willing, will be established and its international political actions "prior to its military actions "in expelling the West and America from the Islamic region, will be an example to be copied and followed by China in expelling the American influence from around China. Thus the political actions by the Khilaafah will indirectly realize the security to China as the Khilaafah directly achieved security to China in the past. The Chinese and Islamic sources mention that the Chinese state requested the Islamic Khilaafah state at the time of Abbasid Khalifaah Abu Jafar Al-Mansur to assist her in quelling the unrest and chaos occurred in China in 756 CE and engulfed the country. The Khalifah sent a force consisting of 4 thousand Muslim soldiers and thus the matter got stabilized in China and they brought the security for the people of the country. The Chinese became highly impressed by the characters, good behaviors and demeanors of the Muslim soldiers and requested them to stay with them and hence those Muslims soldiers stayed there in their capacity as the Daw'ah carriers, spreading the Deen of Islam, its guidance and light among the people of China. Among their grandsons today are the Muslims of East Turkestan who are currently being oppressed by China instead of reciprocating the favor to them!! Will China get aware of this matter and end its occupation of Turkestan without denying the favor done to her by the Khilaafah in the past?!□

Oh! The Muslim Soldiers:
Is There Not a Wise Person about the Condition of Islam & Muslims, their modesty and honour?

The Zionist Jews despatched their Air force to fire bullets on Muslim women in Beit Hanoun that killed and injured them, and attacked the mosques and damaged them, destroyed farms and killed the young ones and elderly alike in their homes.... The Muslim rulers are surveying the damage and counting the dead and the injured. These Muslim rulers are relaxedly watching the brutality of the Zionist Jews as they kill the Muslim women with bullets.

These Muslim rulers are neither shaken nor are their hearts pounding. Their tongues move only to blame the Muslim women protestors at the killing but these rulers do not blame the Zionist Jews who killed the women!

Oh Muslims! Oh Muslim Soldiers!

Has the time not come that you come out of the bonds of these rulers who have turned you to the humiliation and disgrace, instead of moving you to the battle fields? How the armies of Egypt, Jordon, Syria and Lebanon are camping at the borders of Palestine in silence that resembles the silence of death, and watching with their own eyes the Zionist Jews chasing the Muslim women? Egypt shamelessly seeks permission from the Zionist Jews to send its border forces to Egypt's own district of Rafah, only to prevent those in Rafah from helping their brothers who reside in the Palestinian part of Rafah! Whereas these very soldiers should have protected the residents from the brutal and barbaric attacks of the Zionist Jews.

Is there not amongst you one who is eager to seek the pleasure of Allah (swt) and Jannah? Is there not amongst you one who is keen for the honour of this world and the hereafter? Is there not amongst you one who is eager to seek and is willing to sell himself in exchange for the pleasure of Allah (swt) and is willing to stand up against these rulers and their evil and thus help Allah (swt) and His Messenger (saw) and thus have his reward with Allah (swt) written in the white books with Him? Is there not a Mu'tasim among you for these women to avenge the brutality of the enemy?

Oh Muslims! Oh Muslim Soldiers!

Your enemy is not all powerful; his strength is only because of the betrayal of those who commands authority over you. The Zionist Jews have never won a battle that was fought as it should be, but were 'victorious' only in staged managed battles. The book of Allah (swt) also testifies:

﴿وَأِنْ يُقَاتِلُواكُمْ يُوَلُّوكُمُ الْأَدْبَارَ ثُمَّ لَا يُنْصَرُونَ﴾

“If they come out to fight you, they will show their backs and no help shall they get.” [TMQ: Al Imran:111]

And the hadeeth of our Prophet (saw) stands as a witness to this, as reported by Muslim: “لَتَقَاتِلَنَّ الْيَهُودَ وَلَتَفْتُلَنَّاهُمْ”

“When you fight the Jews, it will overwhelm them.”

Or as in another riwayat (narration): “تُقَاتِلُكُمُ الْيَهُودُ فَتُسَلِّطُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ”

“You fight Jews and will overwhelm them.”

As also the testimony of the so called battles stand as a witness to these mock battles:

In the 1948 war, a group of soldiers who truly believed in Allah, refused to surrender and pull back from the wall of Al Quds and were persistent and finally victorious.

In the 1968 battle of Al Karamah, a group of soldiers rebelled against the order of their ruler and entered the battle to help the resistance in Al Karamah, they won and forced the enemy to flee leaving behind a few battle tanks in which the operating soldiers were tied in seats to prevent them from deserting!

At the start of the 1973 war, a group of Egyptian soldiers ran through the Jewish forts at the Bar Lev line. Also the Syrian soldiers penetrated border 48 in Golan despite the huge arsenal of the heavily-armed Zionist Jews. But for the betrayal by Sadat of the Dafurs war, and the letting down of soldiers by Hafez al Assad in Golan, allowed the Americans to enter the war through the negotiations table and not in the actual battle front. If it had not been for this backroom maneuvering, the results of the battle would certainly have been different.

And of course the events of July 2006, the Israeli attacks, when a few believing soldiers confronted the violent Jews in spite of the enormous difference in preparedness and equipment.

The Zionist Jews are covered in humiliation and misery, if the Zionist Jews had ever expected that a single country and not all the surrounding countries was able to confront and humble them. They would have not dared to mount an attack on it and their occupation of Palestine would have shaken by the tremor, and their fate would have been the fate of their similar ones earlier. Their dwellings destroyed by their own hands and by the believers; and the luckier ones among them who escaped bodily harm would have ran away from Palestine.

Truly, Oh Muslims, The strength of your enemies is due to the betrayal of your leaders, this is not the case in Palestine alone, but holds true for the Muslim lands that are occupied by the Kuffar. In fact they could occupy these lands only because of the treachery of these rulers and their associates who failed to help the Muslims. Take Kashmir for instance which is occupied by India and Pakistan fails to liberate it. On the contrary Pakistan is now coming down heavily on the Mujahideen movements in Kashmir! Take Chechnya which is under Russian occupation while the Central Asian countries and Azerbaijan are sitting pretty doing nothing about liberating it from the clutches of brutal Russia. And Afghanistan could only be occupied because of the complicity, conspiracy and betrayal by the ruler of Pakistan. Then, was it possible for America to occupy the rich land of Iraq if Syria, Iran and Turkey moved to help Iraq? Would the Gulf statelets be what they are without having surrendered their lands and making them the storehouse for the American and British arsenal and launching pads for the enemy to attack?

Oh Muslims! Oh Muslim Soldiers!

The Muslim armies are the sons of the Muslims, their ardour and strength springs from the Muslims. How is it that you are unable to stand up with the Muslims in rooting out these rulers who kneel shamelessly before the enemy? Why do you not act to liberate your lands and restore your honour and protect the sanctities of Muslims? Your desire and the aspirations of Muslims looking to this life alone is only leading to a life of shame, humiliation, disgrace and subjugation. It's a miserable life if only you realise it.

Hizb ut-Tahrir calls upon you Oh people, it calls upon you with all its force. Oh soldiers, to answer the distressing cries of women and yelling of the children and the elderly. Hizb ut-Tahrir urges you to move to the battle fields and seek revenge from those responsible and remove from your path all those who have bounded you- the rulers and their cronies. This will save you from the wrath of Allah (swt) and his punishment on the day when no wealth and sons will be of help except those who come to Allah (swt) with a pure and untainted heart.

Hizb ut-Tahrir urges you to stand by it to re-establish the Khilafah..... so that you become the rightly guided. The first leadership of the Khulafa' al Rashidoon, al Mu'tasim and Salahudeen. Will then the kuffar cast a dirty eye on the women and remain safe? Let alone kill them with their bullets. Only then will you become the best of Ummah who are raised for the people.

﴿يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا اسْتَجِيبُوا لِلَّهِ وَلِلرَّسُولِ إِذَا دَعَاكُمْ لِمَا يُحْيِيكُمْ﴾

“O ye who believe! Give your response to Allah and His Apostle, when he calleth you to that which will give you life.” [TMQ: Anfal:24]□

The Ummah sadly sees the failure of the Education System as an Administrative issue, Healthcare as a Government issue, Peace as a political issue, Food security as a Zakah issue and worst of all the insult of our dear beloved Prophet (S.A.W) as a fundamentally religious issue. Hizb-ut Tahrir / East Africa endeavoured to connect the issues together to the Ummah after Jumma Khutbah outside Jamia mosque in Nairobi, Kenya on the 04 Dhul Qa'dah 1433 AH, 21 September 2012 CE that it is an Ideological System issue by placing all five problems on the same plate. Muslims vocally supported and agreed that "Democracy" had most definitely failed, in Kenya and all over the world. □

Morsi Shows His True Colours After Just 100 Days

Mohammed Morsi, President of Egypt, spent his 100th day as president of Egypt in the United States of America at the United Nations General Assembly. Mohammed Morsi was sworn in as president of Egypt on the Saturday 30th June 2012 with much pomp and fanfare.

His electoral victory was a unique moment in the recent history of Egypt. Mohammed Morsi was elected by the people, something none of his predecessors can claim. He is also the first civilian leader in the country's recent history. His party the Muslim Brotherhood (MB) has been working for change for over eight decades, Mohammed Morsi took the premier seat in arguably one of the most influential and powerful countries in the region if not the Muslim world.

Both Mohammed Morsi and the MB have now come face-to-face with the real-world challenges faced by any head of state. Many took to the streets to oust Mubarak, many also lost their lives in the process. After 100 days of ruling we are in a position to assess Morsi's rule and judge if the people's demands have been fulfilled.

Constitution

As Morsi and the MB took the reins of power the electoral victory in reality took place in an environment, where the powers of the president were not defined and the nation's constitution had also not been written. After 100 days in power much of the old system remains intact. Morsi and the MB have not presented any grand vision for the country. It has used slogans such as 'Islam is the solution,' which it has now dropped, however what has been notably absent is where they plan to take the people and exactly how they plan to enrich the nation. All great powers and strong leaders historically had grand visions which they used to unify the people behind them and also got the nation to contribute towards their vision of the future.

Since the election victory the MB has gone to great lengths to demonstrate its moderation to the West. Indeed in its rush to placate so called international opinion, they abandoned all pretence to Islamic politics. In doing so, they think they are being pragmatic, smart and politically savvy. When it comes to applying Islamic politics they cite constitutional barriers and the need to keep minorities onside. When it comes to applying Islamic economics, they cite the need to avoid scaring international investors and tourists. When it comes to applying the Islamic foreign policy, they cite the need to show a moderate image and to appease the West.

Economy

The biggest challenge that Morsi faced was the economy. Today Egypt has an economy worth $168 billion, almost entirely driven by agriculture, media, petroleum exports and tourism. Its services industry constitutes 49% of the economy.

The problem with the Egyptian economy is the fact that an elite few control it. When elites control an economy, they use their power to create monopolies and block the entry of new people and firms. This is how Egypt worked for three decades under Hosni Mubarak. The government and military own vast swaths of the economy -- by some estimates, as much as 40%. Even when they did "liberalize," they privatized large parts of the economy right into the hands of Mubarak's friends and those of his son Gamal. Big businessmen close to the regime, such as Ahmed Ezz (iron and steel), the Sawiris family (multimedia, beverages, and telecommunications), and Mohamed Nasseir (beverages and telecommunications) received not only protection from the state but also government contracts and large bank loans. Together, these big businessmen their stranglehold on the economy created astronomical profits for regime insiders, but blocked opportunities for the vast mass of Egyptians to move out of poverty. Meanwhile, the Mubarak family accumulated a vast fortune estimated as high as $70 billion.

Morsi's strategy for solving this was to officially beg the IMF for a $4.9 billion loan. Egypt's Prime Minister, Hesham Qandil described the 5 year loan to be paid back with 1.1% rate as a good deal for the country.

The Prime Minister appeared live on Egypt's state television in a desperate bid to justify the loan by explaining its benefits to the people. However, he was unable to conceal the truth and in his subsequent statement, he contradicted himself and exposed one of IMF's stipulated conditions, which is to force Morsi's government to cut spending related to looking after the affairs of the Egyptian people. He said, "It is an Egyptian programme that will work on cutting and spending and adopting certain other measures."

Fearing backlash, Qandil intentionally chose not to elaborate on the other draconian measures. It is well known that such measures include: increase in taxes, price hikes on essential items, and further loans from other institutions. All of which will make the people suffer immensely and add to their misery. In fact the Financial Times confirmed these measures. On August 22 2012, the paper stated: "The IMF wants Egypt to outline plans to reduce its budget deficit by bolstering revenues and trimming the costly public sector, including fuel and food subsidies. Egypt must also secure financing from other lending institutions as part of the loan terms."

Israel

Morsi made clear in his victory speech that he would honor all of Egypt's international treaties. No sooner had the dust settled on him assuming power it came to light Morsi had sent a communiqué confirming Egypt's commitment to peaceful ties with the Israel. In the letter sent to Shimon Peres, President of Israel, Morsi said: "I am looking forward to exerting our best efforts to get the Middle East Peace Process back to its right track in order to achieve security and stability for all peoples of the region, including that Israeli people." Despite vociferous denials by Morsi's representatives, the letter has turned out to be genuine. The UK's Guardian reported that Peres's office said the president's aides received the official communiqué on July 31st 2012 from the Egyptian ambassador to the Jewish state, both by registered mail and by fax from the Egyptian embassy in Tel Aviv. Furthermore, the paper stated that the fax number which appeared on the faxed letter was registered to the Egyptian embassy in Tel Aviv.

On the back of this in August 2012 the Morsi government decided to send the military to track and eliminate threats of militancy in Sinai. This was after accusing militants of killing 16 border patrol troops on a checkpoint in Sinai near the border with Israel. The killing of Egyptian troops was used as a basis to depose the head of intelligence, the head of military police and the governor of North Sinai. A few weeks later the heads of the SCAF, Tantawi and Sami Annan were also retired.

The removal of these senior generals was proven to not have been an independent affair when the US state department confirmed it knew about the changes within the military establishment before they happened as was reported by a US spokeswoman:

"Hilary Clinton knew of ongoing discussions about a new defense team and was told during talks with President Morsi in Cairo last month that the change would be made 'at an appropriate moment.'" Commenting on the new appointed personnel for the defense ministry and army, the US administration said that, "Egypt's new top military officer is a known commodity in Washington."

The Morsi government's extremely heavy handed tactics raised a number of questions. The tactics and heavy weaponry was completely disproportionate to the incident. It was reported by the Associated Press that "Egyptian troops, light tanks, armored vehicles and attack helicopters are pouring into the Sinai desert." Based on the Camp David Accords between Egypt and Israel signed in 1979, Sinai is a demilitarized zone and Egypt is not allowed to bring in military forces and heavy weaponry.

The complete silence by Israel over this affair is very telling. Israel has always made a great fuss about any additions to any forces in Sinai. This is because General Lieutenant Ahmed Ali of the Egyptian forces confirmed in a briefing that "there is coordination over the presence of the armed forces in the Sinai territories," he continued: "I think that there is the understanding that the military operation in Sinai is in the interest of all." An Israeli government official, speaking on condition of anonymity because of the matter's sensitivity, said there are ongoing communications between the two sides.

Conclusions

Morsi and the MB no longer speak of 'Islam is the solution.' Saad al-Husseini, a member of Egypt's Freedom and Justice Party executive bureau said in an interview, that tourism is very important for Egypt and stressed that drinking and selling alcohol are forbidden in Islam. However, he then added, "Yet Islamic laws also prohibit spying on private places and this applies to beaches as well...I wish 50 million tourists would travel to Egypt even if they come nude."

All pretence to Islam has been conveniently removed from the statements of MB and Morsi. On the economic front it is plainly clear both Morsi and MB have no programme. In the wider region Morsi has no plans to change the status quo, but maintain what his predecessors constructed. The current reality is that the Islamic groups that languished in the torture cells of the likes of Mubarak touting 'Islam is the solution,' are now actually holding the Ummah back from Islamic rule.

Mohammad Morsi and the MB should remember when Mubarak protected Western interests rather than his peoples, the Ummah eventually rose up against him and when he didn't relinquish his position the Ummah came onto the streets and challenged him, eventually leading to his demise. If the MB fail to deliver a similar fate may await them. □

GCC deepens its servitude to America

The Foreign Ministers of Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) and the US Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, held their second Ministerial Meeting within the framework of 'The Strategic Cooperation Forum between the (GCC) member states and the United States. The meeting, which was held on the sidelines of the 67th United Nations General Assembly session here in New York, reviewed the workflow of the 'US-GCC Strategic Cooperation Forum' and ways to strengthen its role through enhancing and boosting the strategic cooperation relations between the two sides and the latest developments in the region and issues of common concern. The Ministers condemned in a statement issued at the conclusion of the forum the abusive video of the Prophet Mohammed (saw) and stressed their rejection of all attempts aiming at defamation of religions. It also stressed the rejection of all forms of terrorism and extremism and condemnation of the attacks on the US embassies and others in the recent weeks and the resulting loss of life and property. The statement included the following points regarding the strategic cooperation between the two sides: Commitment of both sides despite challenges facing the region to promote political, military, security and economic cooperation between them in order to maintain peace, security, stability and prosperity in the Gulf region and the Middle East and to face the threats against the territory of the GCC countries and maritime security in the Gulf region. The two sides expressed their deep concern over the continuing Iranian intervention in the internal affairs of the GCC and called on Iran to respect international principles in this area. Welcome of the formation of a joint security committee between the GCC and the United States, in the framework of the Strategic Cooperation Forum, to cooperate in the fight against terrorism, border security and territorial waters. Welcome of the signing on September 25, 2012 in New York of the Framework Agreement for economic, trade, investment and technical cooperation. Deepening cooperation between the GCC and the US in the field of missile defence, as a key element in their efforts to achieve peace and stability in the region. Valuation of close cooperation between the two sides in the field of maritime security and encouragement to take additional steps to deepen and coordinate these efforts and welcome of the steps taken by the GCC countries with regard to the establishment of the navigational operations centre in Bahrain, and the desire of the US to participate in its works, in order to work on harmonization among the naval forces, match procedures for maritime communications, increase joint maritime operations between the two sides and strengthen cooperation in the fight against piracy and the safety of maritime navigation. □

Iran, Iraq call for expansion of defence ties

During a meeting in Baghdad on Wednesday, Iranian Defence Minister Ahmad Vahidi and Iraqi Prime Minister Nouri al-Maliki called for the expansion of cooperation between the two countries in various areas, particularly in the area of defence. Heading a high-ranking military delegation, Brigadier General Vahidi arrived in Baghdad on Wednesday at the invitation of his Iraqi counterpart Saadoun al-Dulaimi. It is the first time that an Iranian defence minister has visited Iraq since the victory of the Islamic Revolution of Iran in 1979. During the meeting, Maliki said that enhanced defence ties between Iran and Iraq will help promote peace in the region. Vahidi stated that defence and security cooperation between the two countries is exemplary in the region. Upon his arrival in Baghdad, Vahidi told reporters that Iran's principled policy is to expand cooperation with regional countries, particularly Iraq. "The country of Iraq has a special status in Iran's foreign policy and defence diplomacy," he added. He also stated that the "new Iraq" that has a democratically elected government has provided an "opportunity" for the Iranian and Iraqi nations to take great steps toward further cooperation based on the principle of "good neighbourliness" and friendly relations. □

Relationship with Pakistan problematic, says NATO chief

NATO has said relationship with Pakistan is a bit problematic reason being unresolved issues. "The border region is really a big challenge. Whenever we engage with the Pakistani government and military, we encourage them to step up fight against terrorists and extremists in the region. It remains an unsolved problem," NATO Secretary General Anders Fogh Rasmussen said in an interview with Charlie Rose Show of PBS News. He pressed for a strong partnership with Pakistan to find a solution to these issues. Undeterred by the recent spurt in insider attacks in Afghanistan, he said, "Taliban will miscalculate the situation if they think their situation will be better by the end of 2014, because they will be faced with a very strong and capable Afghan security force." "They will not be in a stronger position. When we (will) stop our combat mission, a very capable Afghan security force will take over. We are building up the number of Afghan security forces and by 2014, we will have 352,000 Afghan forces. And more importantly, quality-wise they will be very capable," the NATO secretary general said. □

The Tour of Syria

The brother, head of the Media Office promised a repeat of this tour and said: "Our Media Office does not see itself in Damascus only, but rather in all parts of the land of the blessed Syrian revolution. You, heroes have taught the whole Ummah the alphabet of revolutions and the challenging of the Taghoot. If we leave you and go back to Damascus...it would be in hope of waiting for the zero hour, the time of the declaration of the Khilafah, where you will hear the scream of Allahu Akbar with the appeal: "Extend your hand to give you the bai'ah .. on the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Messenger." Thus, the free people of Al-Sham would then step with their feet on the era of oppressive ruling (hukm jabri), and declare the start of the era of the rightly guided Khilafah on the model of prophethood), where the cries of Allahu Akbar would then reverberate among the people.

O Allah, bless the people of Al-Sham with victory and consolidation, O Lord of the Worlds. Our last prayer is celebrating the great pleasure to Allah, the Lord of the worlds. □ munity and the wider society to not scapegoat the powerless on superficial grounds for the crimes of the powerful.

9. The irresponsibility and anti-Islam agenda of the mainstream media has now extended to not even sparing young children from intentional distortion for negative portrayal. The sound bites used of 8-yr Ruqaya to concoct a story about the 'Jihad girl' is disgusting and deplorable, as is the intentional intertwining between Hizb ut-Tahrir's conference and Saturday's protest. Ruqaya's message at the conference was a touching message from a child to the oppressed children and mothers in Syria - a message of empathy and support.

10. We encourage Muslims to continue in their noble work of resisting Western attacks, accounting the political establishment and media, and re-doubling efforts to establish Islam and the Caliphate in the Muslim World. We encourage the noble youth of this Ummah in particular, who are its flagbearers, its prized assets and its future, to persevere. You are not weak. You are strong because of your Islam. You are not a minority. You are part of a global and powerful Ummah. Do not be phased by the media or the politicians. We do not expect anything better from them. We expect from you. Stand for Islam and work for its establishment. □ were killed with their hands like Red Indians and the victims of Hiroshima and Nagasaki or those who are still being killed in Afghanistan, Iraq and tribal area of Pakistan. Hizb ut-Tahrir wants to tell the Ummah that it is Haram to take this matter to United Nation as Allah (swt) says:

﴿الْم تَر إِلَى الَّذِينَ يَزْعُمُونَ أَنَّهُمْ آمَنُوا بِمَا أُنْزِلَ إِلَيْكَ وَمَا أُنْزِلَ مِنْ قَبْلِكَ يُرِيدُونَ أَنْ يَتَحَاكَمُوا إِلَى الطَّاغُوتِ وَقَدْ أُمِرُوا أَنْ يَكْفُرُوا بِهِ وَيُرِيدُ الشَّيْطَانُ أَنْ يُضِلَّهُمْ ضَلَالًا بَعِيدًا﴾

"Have you seen those (hypocrites) who claim that they believe in that which has been sent down to you, and that which was sent down before you, and they wish to go for judgement (in their disputes) to the Taghut (false judges, etc.) while they have been ordered to reject them. But Shaitan (Satan) wishes to lead them far astray." [al-Nisa: 60]

And the establishment of Khilafah is the only solution of this issue. After the establishment, Khilafah will unite more than one billion Muslims and six million of their army, expel the ambassadors of America and of those western countries who are in active war against Muslims, close their embassies, cut NATO supply line and order the sixty million Muslim armies to avenge Rasool Allah (s.a.w) according to his (s.a.w) status. □

Shahzad Shaikh
Deputy to the Spokesman of Hizb ut-Tahrir in Pakistan

Book of the Month:

The present generation does not recall the Islamic State that implemented Islam, and those who lived during the last years of the Islamic State ('Uthmani Khilafah) against which the West had directed its onslaught, had in fact witnessed the remains of a state implementing remnants of Islamic rule. That is why it has become extremely difficult for any Muslim to illustrate the picture of the Islamic rule to minds subdued by the situation, minds which cannot imagine the system of government except through the rotten democratic regimes imposed on Muslim countries.

So how could such seduced minds realise that the poisonous dagger which killed their mother is the same one that is always threatening their lives and very existence, so long as they hold onto it. That those concepts which they carry, such as nationalism, separating the deen from the State and the anti-Islamic notions are the very poison that this Western culture has brought to them. The chapter about the missionary invasion in this book is full of facts and figures showing clearly and in detail the true intentions of the killer and the true motives behind the crime, listing the means and methods used to carry it out. The only reason was to eradicate Islam, and the most effective weapon was this Western culture which the missionary invasion had brought.

The Muslims were caught unaware of the dangers of such culture, they began resisting and fighting the physical occupation of their lands whilst embracing the Western culture, which was the real reason behind the occupation taking root in their lands. The sad irony is that Muslims, while allegedly turning their backs on the foreigner and fighting the occupation, welcomed the West with open arms and drank from its poison until they collapsed, weary and lifeless; one would think them casualties of war, alas they were in fact victims of ignorance and misguidance.

What do they actually seek? A state based on other than Islam? Or several states on Muslim land? The West, since becoming the effective ruler, has already given them several states; completing therefore its scheme of keeping Islam out of government, dividing the Muslim land and giving the Muslims a trivial and facade rule. From time to time, the West creates for Muslims a new state, and it is more than willing to give them even more as long as they hold on to Western principles and concepts.

The Islamic State is not a dream, nor is it a figment of the imagination, for it had dominated and influenced history for more than thirteen hundred years. So, it is a reality, it has always been and always will be. The vital elements of its existence are far greater than can be ignored or fought against by anything or anyone; the enlightened people have adopted it and it is the wish of the Ummah which is eager for the glory of Islam. The Islamic State is not a desire that one aims to satisfy, but an obligation that Allah (swt) has decreed on Muslims and commanded them to execute. He (swt) warned of the punishment awaiting those who neglect this duty.

The Islamic State is by no means an easy acquisition, nor a question of simply becoming ministers (this applies to both parties and individuals) and becoming part of the present ruling system. The road is embedded with thorns, full of perils, obstacles and hardships, not to mention the non-Islamic culture, shallow thinking and pro-Western regimes which form a formidable obstacle. Those who tread the path of the Islamic call to restore the Islamic State, would in fact be aiming at seizing power in order to resume the Islamic way of life in the Muslim lands, and to convey the Message of Islam to the whole world. That is why they would categorically reject sharing power with anyone, no matter how great the temptation. They would also reject absolute rule unless they were capable of implementing Islam comprehensively, radically and instantaneously.

Finally, this book about the Islamic State is not meant to narrate its history but to explain how the Messenger of Allah (saw) established the Islamic State, and to show how the colonial disbelievers destroyed it. It demonstrates how Muslims should re-establish their State so that the light that guided the world in the darkest of ages returns to enlighten humanity once again. □
